Musician organizes Cancer Society benefits honoring his late mother

Edgar Thatcher, local musical performer for many years, has teamed up with the Halton Hills Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society for two fund-raising benefit concerts called "The Spectacular New Age Vaudeville Show for 1991"

For Edgar, the best way to help is through his entertainment ability, and the numerous friends, both performer and non-performer, who are donating their time and energy toward the spirit of this event. It is the selfless spirit of everyone's activity towards these shows that was the true belief of his mother.

Edgar's mother, Vera Thatcher, lost her life to cancer in the late summer of 1990. She was a local farmer's wife and support community arts and sports for 20 years.

On February 15 and 16, as a tribute to his mother's life and support of the arts, Edgar has accumu-

Expecting a baby?

Expecting a baby or planning to start a family sometime in the near future? You may be interested in taking a look at Peel Memorial Hospital's Family Birthing Centre.

The centre is hosting an open house this Sunday, January 27, 2-5:30 p.m. There will be guided tours and a video.

Special arrangements can be made for anyone who'd like to have a baby in the birthing centre, but whose doctor doesn't have hospital privileges at PMH. The hospital is located at 20 Lynch St., south of Queen between Main St. and Kennedy Rd.
