Bible prophecy seminar on the Persian Gulf crisis

For six months everyone has been watching the Middle East with intensifying concern. Saddam Hussein's invasion of Kuwait and the military's build-up of sophisticated aircraft and heavily armed ships has refocused the world's attention on the Middle East. No newscast is now complete without lengthy time being spent on the war in the gulf.

People are wondering where these events might lead. Could this be the beginning of that final era resulting in a worldwide struggle for survival?

For the next six weeks a Bible Prophecy Seminar on the Persian Gulf crisis will be conducted at Halton Gospel Temple, located on Hwy. 7, one mile west of Georgetown, every Wednesday night from 7-8:30 p.m. Nursery care and children's church will be provided.

Everyone from Halton Hills and the surrounding area is welcome to attend this timely, thought-provoking seminar.

The world prays March 1

"On The Journey Together" is the theme of the 1991 World Day of Prayer service. The women of Kenya invite us to come on a journey, a safari, with them in their country. In preparing the service, the writers travelled many miles to hear the stories of women and to reflect with them on their faith journeys. They share with us their hopes and struggles.

As Christians gather on March 1 for the 104th World Day of Prayer service, they are invited to reflect on their own experience and what it means for to them, as Christians in Canada to journey with their sisters and brothers in Kenya. Each year the World Day of Prayer service is written by women of a different country and distributed worldwide by the International Committee for the World Day of Prayer which has representatives from 170 countries.

The World Day of Prayer service in area will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, March 1 in St. Andrew's United Church, 89 Mountainview Rd., S. Georgetown.

The special day is sponsored by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada and the local service is organized by ecumenical groups across the country. The offerings from the service are used to provide study and worship resources to cover costs of printing and distributing the services and to support ecumenical projects in Canada and abroad. Last year grant totalling $40,554 were given to a variety of projects including education and skill development for low income women in Montreal, the set-up of an ecumenical centre in Czechoslovakia and services to victims of wife abuse in Peru, Belize, Winipeg and eastern Arctic.
