Georgetown bowling round-up

SENIORS
Hot Shot of the Week (again): Robert Harrison 301, 204, 298 - 803.
What a great week of bowling by our top average senior bowler Robert Harrison. He began the week with a bunch of strikes and spares, but was interrupted by headpins, headpins and more headpins. This great week brings Robert above his next closest competitor by almost five pins! Way to go, Rob, take it all the way to Four Steps!
There were some other great scores recorded by our senior bowlers. Leading the way was David Ridley 693 (259), Brian Bell 668 (248), Eddie Doyle 660 (304), Mark Prevost 643 (254), Tonya Morris 610 (232), and Christina Lane 605 (220).
Good luck to both the senior boys and girls team as they head off to the Zone rounds of the Four Steps to Stardom Tournament tomorrow (Sunday). Also, good luck to Christina Lane and Brian Bell who are off to compete in the Singles Competition on the following weekend, the 24th.

"SPILLING THE PINS" AT ACTON LANES 853-0170

A great friend and competitor from the Acton Golden Agers bowling league passed away on Saturday, Feb. 9, 1991. Rose Fountain will be missed by all of her friends at Acton Lanes. The warmth and kindness that Rose bestowed upon all her fellow competitors will be missed with great sadness.

Acton Lanes Bowlers of the Week: Youth Bowler Squirt - Brandon Kernohan, 181 double, 96 single. Men - Bryan Creasey, 869, 850 triples. Ladies - Pat Giguere, 232 single.

Sunday night is Family Night! At Acton Lanes, children under 12 years of age bowl for free when accompanied by their parents. Sundays, 5-9 p.m. Bring the kids and have some fun!
