

Joy's heading for Ontario championships

Joy Christopher of the Acton Figure Skating Club qualified last weekend for the Ontario Interclub Championships by placing second in Central Ontario.

Joy skated in the Pre-Juvenile competition at the Centrals, held in Markham, while Jonathan Routledge competed in Preliminary, Alison Coe in Senior Silver Solo Dance and Kara Leatherland in Bronze Artistic "B."

The Ontario championships take place in Bowmanville March 16 and 17.

Dodge Peewees in consolation final

By RON KERSLAKE

Georgetown's Mal Dodge ReMax Peewees competed in the Stayner Peewee Tournament last weekend and finished as finalists in the consolation round of their division.

Even though the team had a 1-2 record, they played very competitively in all the matches.

The boys were outmuscled in their first game with Stayner and lost 3-0. It's good to be nice to your hosts.

But it's no fun to lose all the time, so the boys outmuscled Erindale and won 5-0. Dave Doole scored three times as Sean Peasgood and Steve Markham added singles.

Captain Chris Corney set up the first goal for Dave with Peasgood assisting on one of the others. Keith Hunt hustled and got two well-deserved assists in this game. Robbie Pilgrim and Mike Walinga were rewarded for their two way efforts with assists on Steve's goal.

The final game was a 3-0 loss to Parry Sound - a game that could have gone the other way with a few bounces in our favor instead of theirs.

Goaltenders John Moon and Geoff Beauparlant played very well to limit the other teams to six goals in three games. Credit good defensive work by Corney, Andy Kerslake, Trevor Crane and Ken Armstrong.

Tournament organizers awarded MVPs in each game and the winners for Georgetown were Trevor Crane, Dave Doole and Sean Peasgood.

The boys represented Georgetown well as coach Brian Markham and manager Gilles Beauparlant got compliments at the hotel on how well the team behaved.

GYMNASTS' WINTERFEST

Showing grace under pressure — many of them performing in public for the first time in their young careers — members of the Halton Hills Gymnastics Club hosted their second annual Winterfest Interclub Competition recently. Among Group 1 participants (above), Kira Lawrence was first all-round, Stephanie Norman second, Melissa Crea third, Cindy Benner fourth, Anne Harlow fifth and Jennifer Booth sixth. In Group 2 (below) were Annie Parent (1st), Julie Pollock (2nd), Brianna Beaumont (3rd), Alanna Yeung (4th) and Melanie Rivard (5th). Absent is Andrea Pollock.

Once you slip behind the wheel of a Volkswagen Passat, you'll be pleasantly surprised by just how much room the Passat has to offer. But the same German engineering that gave Passat its unique blend of form and function makes it look good on paper, too. And once you've taken a Passat for a test drive, you'll find the Passat driving experience is really beyond comparison.
