

SGT. DAN FARR

New Crime Stoppers coordinator

The Halton Regional Police Service has appointed a new coordinator for its Crime Stoppers program.

Sgt. Dan Farr, a 17-year-veteran of the Halton Force, took over the coordinator's job from Sgt. David Atkinson on March 1.

Sgt. Farr, 41, has served as a uniform patrol officer, C.I.B. investigator, identification officer and drug investigator, and has worked in all areas of Halton.

He was promoted to the rank of sergeant in October 1986 and assigned to the drug and morality bureau as supervisor. In 1987 he was transferred to the intelligence bureau.

Farr is a long-time resident of Burlington, where he lives with his wife and three children.

Police seek armed robber

Released by
SGT. DAN FARR

On February 5 at approximately 4:55 p.m., a man described as male, white, approximately 50 years of age, held up the liquor store located at 108 Allen St., Oakville. The suspect brandished weapon described as having a four inch black barrel and a silver cylinder.

Witnesses state the suspect spoke with an "east coast accent," had scars on his right cheek and was missing a tooth from his upper set of teeth.

It was also reported the culprit had a cut on the bridge of his nose and what appeared to be an abrasion on his left cheek. He was described as "looking like an alcoholic."

The suspect was wearing blue jeans, running shoes, a navy blue nylon jacket and a dark blue baseball cap. He also wore a tan colored belt with a large brass belt buckle.

The armed robber forced the cashier to put all of the money into a bag and before fleeing he forced all employees and patrons into a rear office of the store. He was last seen fleeing the scene on foot in an easterly direction in the area of 135 Allan Street.
