Liquor stolen

Beer and liquor were stolen during a basement break-in on Hewson Cres. last Thursday about a half hour after midnight. The owner of the residence was awakened by a thumping noise and went down to discover the basement had been entered through a window.

Helping others

The Canadian Cancer Society is looking for local volunteers who've battled cancer themselves to share their time and words of encouragement with current patients. If you're coping well with your cancer and feel ready to give support to others, please call Barbara Martin at 451-4485.

Newspaper box thefts

About $60 worth of coins was stolen from two Globe and Mail newspaper boxes sometime between 9 p.m. last Thursday and midnight Friday. One of the boxes was located near the post office at Maple Ave. and Guelph St., while the other was in front of the IGA store.
