Mushrooms eyeing Hostess Cup next

Leaver lost the semi-final round three games straight, with each game becoming tighter. The Kings' parents were quite concerned before the third game that a Leaver win might turn the series around. In fact, the final game saw the Mushrooms force the long (three 15-minute stop time periods) game on Woodbridge's Olympic size ice surface into a 10-minute non-sudden death overtime period. The Kings' two practices per week, combined with their familiarity of the large ice surface were just too much for Leaver's near comeback. But next year...

RICHMOND HILL/VAUGHAN 4 LEAVER 3

Leaver's heroic season came to an end March 12 as the Richmond Hill/Vaughan Kings shaded them 4-3 in overtime. This was a must win for Halton, who had to pull out all the stops. Unfortunately, the Kings were also determined to win and came out with a big effort peppering Leaver's goaltender Steve Heinz with 32 shots compared with Leaver's 21 shots on net.

Leaver's point getters were Scott Bertoli, two goals, one assist; Trevor Kuhn, one goal, while Bobby Wilson, Jeff Haydar and Daryl Loader earned one assist each.

RICHMOND HILL/VAUGHAN 5 LEAVER 3

The Kings took an early two-goal lead with Leaver playing catch-up throughout the game. Whenever Leaver scored one, the Kings replied with another.

Leaver's first goal was scored at 13:24 of the third by Mark McPhail from Phillip Sanderson and Wilson. The Kings responded 28 seconds later. At 8:56 Jeff Haydar notched Leaver's second marker assisted by Loader and Tim Diardichuk. Behind 4-2 and only 20 seconds left in the game, Loader brought the game to within one, assists to Bertoli and Haydar. But the Kings refused to back down, and scored an empty net marker with six seconds left in an exciting finish.

RICHMOND HILL/VAUGHAN 6 LEAVER 2

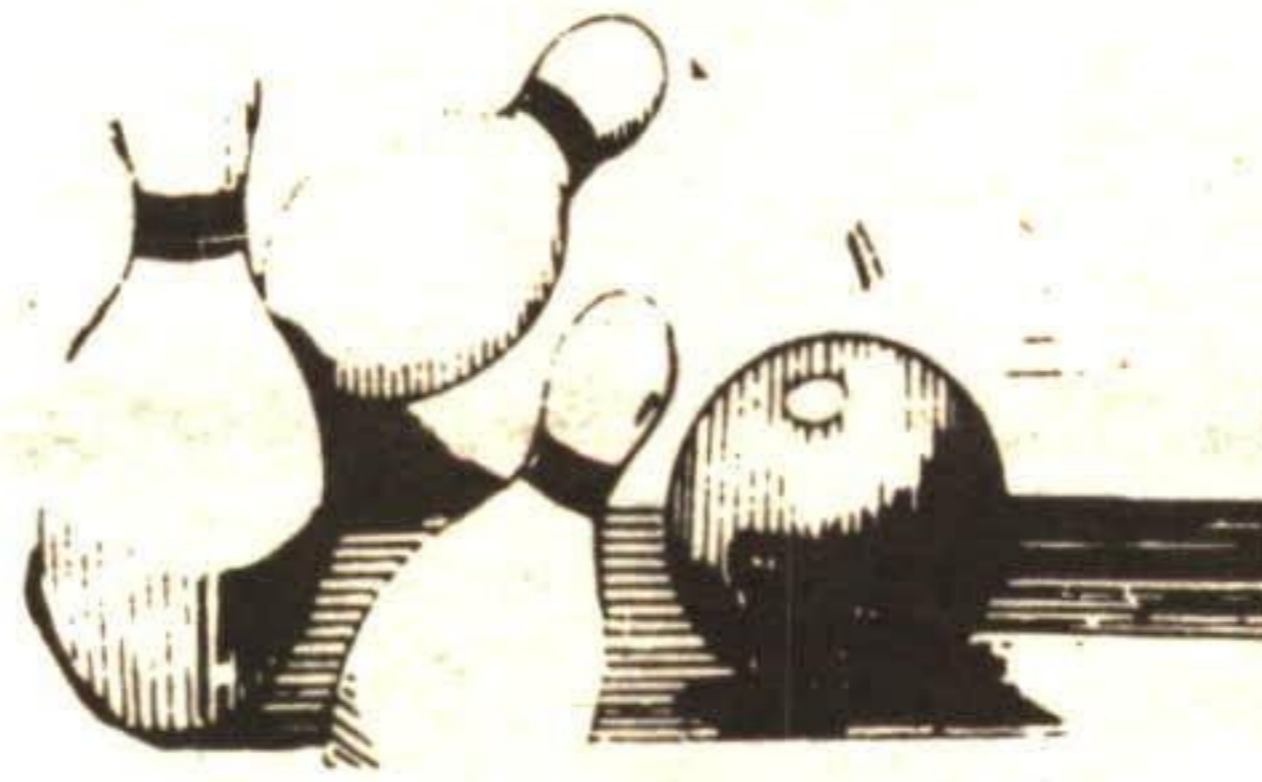

Leaver could do no right (or left for that matter) as everything they tried in this game blew up in their faces. Without Kevin Wilson's steady goaltending, the score could have been much higher. Leaver's bright spots were the unassisted goal by Sanderson and Bertoli's goal from Haydar and Loader.

Strong showings were put in throughout the series by Sandy Davidson, Iain Macintosh and Robin Crawford. Marc Boucher was injured in the first game and could not complete the series, while Paul Sandifer was missed due to holidays.

Three Minor Peewee Hurricanes were brought up for the series - Tom Baynton, Todd Miller and Doug Janjevich. Their help was appreciated.

The team wishes to thank the coaches - Bert Bertoli, Gary Loader, Jim Kuhn and Frank Haydar; team mothers - Louise Loader and Barb Macintosh; our sponsor Leaver Mushrooms for their support; and the Hurricane organization whose hard work allowed these boys to play at this level.

Special congratulations to the boys on the team on a very successful year.

"SPILLING THE PINS" AT

Congratulations to: Both new members of our Senior Citizen's 250 Club. Kay Tulk bowled a great 312 single, almost 170 over her average, and Wilmer Davidson who bowled a 258 single, 110 over his average. Both Kay and Wilmer were bowling against each other during our Golden Agers and both excellent scores came in the same game.
