

Globe predicts a funny thing will happen on the way to the Forum

Globe Productions' spring offering is only a month away and the cast and crew are having as much fun rehearsing for it as the audience will have watching it! "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" will run May 2, 3, 4, 9, 10 and 11 at the John Elliott Theatre. Curtain time each night is 8 p.m. and tickets are on sale now at Royal LePage Real Estate, 170 Guelph St. in Georgetown.

Tickets are $11 each; however, a special group rate for parties of 10 persons or more will be offered at $9 each for both Thursday performances (May 2 and 9). If you are planning on taking advantage of the special Dinner Theatre package on May 4, you'd better hurry as tickets are going fast. The Roman Feast begins in the Art Gallery adjacent to the theatre at 6:15 p.m. Tickets for dinner and a reserved seat for the show are $32.50 each. According to the "Encyclopedia of The Musical Theatre," the Broadway production of "Forum" premiered in 1962. The music and lyrics are by Stephen Sondheim, based on the book by Burt Shevelove and Larry Gelbart. The authors researched the 21 surviving plays by the Roman playwright Plautus and came up with a play incorporating characters and situations they found in them. The result was "a bawdy, farcical musical full of sight gags, pratfalls, mistaken identity and other familiar vaudeville ingredients."

The show centres around convincing servants, a lascivious master, a domineering mistress, a naive hero, a self-centred warrior and of course a beautiful young heroine! Gather your friends and celebrate the arrival of spring with a fun-filled evening of musical comedy... see you at the Forum!
