Obituary

Clifford Cook loved to work the good earth

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Clifford Cook, who passed away at the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital on April 22.

Beloved husband of Dorothy Widdis, and loving father of Allan of RR4 Georgetown, Bill and his wife Judy of Georgetown, and Bob and his wife Monica of Chatsworth.

Loved grandfather of Roni and Angela, Kevin, Heather, Emily, Alica, Miranda and Ryan.

Dear brother of Jack Cook of Bowmanville, Enid McBride of Brampton, and Bill Cook of Georgetown.

Clifford was born and raised on the family farm on Lot 20, Concession 11 (Winston Churchill Blvd.).

He was a third generation farmer and enjoyed working with the good earth. Up to the time of ill health, Clifford helped his son Allan with the farm chores and tractor work.

Always community-minded, Clifford was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. An avid euchre player, he enjoyed a good game of cards with his friends and neighbours.

Just last fall, on October 26, Clifford and Dorothy celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, when their family surprised them with a party, following a family dinner.

Friends were received at the J.S. Jones and Son Funeral Home Georgetown, on Wednesday when visitation was from 2-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. The funeral service was held in the chapel on April 25 at 2 p.m. Interment in Glen Williams Cemetery. In memory contributions to the Canadian Cancer Society would be appreciated.

Rev. Mary Campbell conducted the funeral service, assisted by Pastor Dave Tapley. During the service, Sandra Grieg sang two beautiful solos, "How Great Thou Art" and "It is Well With My Soul".

Pallbearers were Ken McHugh, Murray Judge, Rick West, Carson Watson, Earl Lane, Roy Thompson. Flowerbearers were Bill Hunter, Kyle Bingham, Clure Archdekin, Herb Cook, Bob Leslie, George Dixon, Ernie Peasey, Howard Dolson, Harold Chambers, Bill Taylor and Tom Ledwidge.

Aluminum stolen

Large aluminum beams worth $18,000 were stolen from their storage site at Maple Leaf Farms, on Trafalgar Rd., north of Sdrd. 5 between April 16 to 18. The beams, up to 12 feet long, were in four bundles and used in construction. They were owned by Consolidated Construction Ltd., of Mississauga, which owns the site, police said. They have no suspect in the incident.
