YMCA Art Auction May 10

The North Halton YMCA will be hosting its 12 Annual Gala Art Auction on Friday, May 10 at Holy Cross Auditorium. A wine and cheese reception and preview of the art will begin at 7 p.m. and the actual auction begins at 8 p.m.

Beaux Art International, a Toronto based art gallery, supplies 150 pieces of art and sculptures with local artists also included in the show.

Our feature artist, Carole Black, a resident of the Halton Hills area will be present the night of the show to speak to collectors, and many of her works will also be auctioned off.

Non-art items such as a summer membership at the Georgetown Racquet Club, Buffalo Bills tickets, and dance lessons will also be on the block, and add to the evening's excitement.

The YMCA has a policy that no person should be denied access to their programs due to economic circumstances. In these tough economic times more and more people are turning to the YMCA in their time of need. All proceeds from the evening will go towards helping the YMCA as they provide programs for all age groups within our community.

Tickets are $8 in advance and $9 at the door, and are available at Oxbow Books, Georgetown Yarn & Crafts, Work That Body, and The Hallmark Store, or by calling the North Halton Office at 878-0548.
