REBEL SOCCER MOVES OUTDOORS

Georgetown District High School Rebel Janet Skeeta tries to regain the ball from an E.C. Drury player (above) during senior girls soccer action Monday afternoon at Emmerson Park, but the Rebels emerged victorious, with a 3-0 final score.

It was one of the first outdoor games of the season for the Rebel squad, which did extremely well during the indoor season. Earlier this month, they ended up in the top eight among 48 teams competing at the York University Invitational.

Oldtimers skate this weekend for tourney honors

The final hockey tourney of the year for Halton Hills is well underway.

Some 18 teams of oldtimers are competing at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena this weekend with hopes of bringing home one more title before officially hanging them up for the summer.

The event, featuring teams in the 30-plus, 35-plus and 40-plus divisions, began Thursday evening with the Acton Neanderthals tangling with Air Canada.

On Friday evening 12 more teams suited up including a squad from Elliot Lake. They were tangling with Dave's Service Centre of Georgetown. Colonial Tree Service, Acton Old Crows, Scrubs on Skates, Huff 'n' Puffers, Derbys and Sunday

Niters from the Halton Hills area will also compete.

Games run Saturday from 8 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. and Sunday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

After a three-game round robin, the top clubs will compete in the division championships Sunday, beginning at 1 p.m. with the consolation final in the 35-plus division. The 35-plus championship tilt goes at 2 p.m. with the over-40 finale at 3 p.m. The 30-plus championship will wrap things up at 4 p.m.

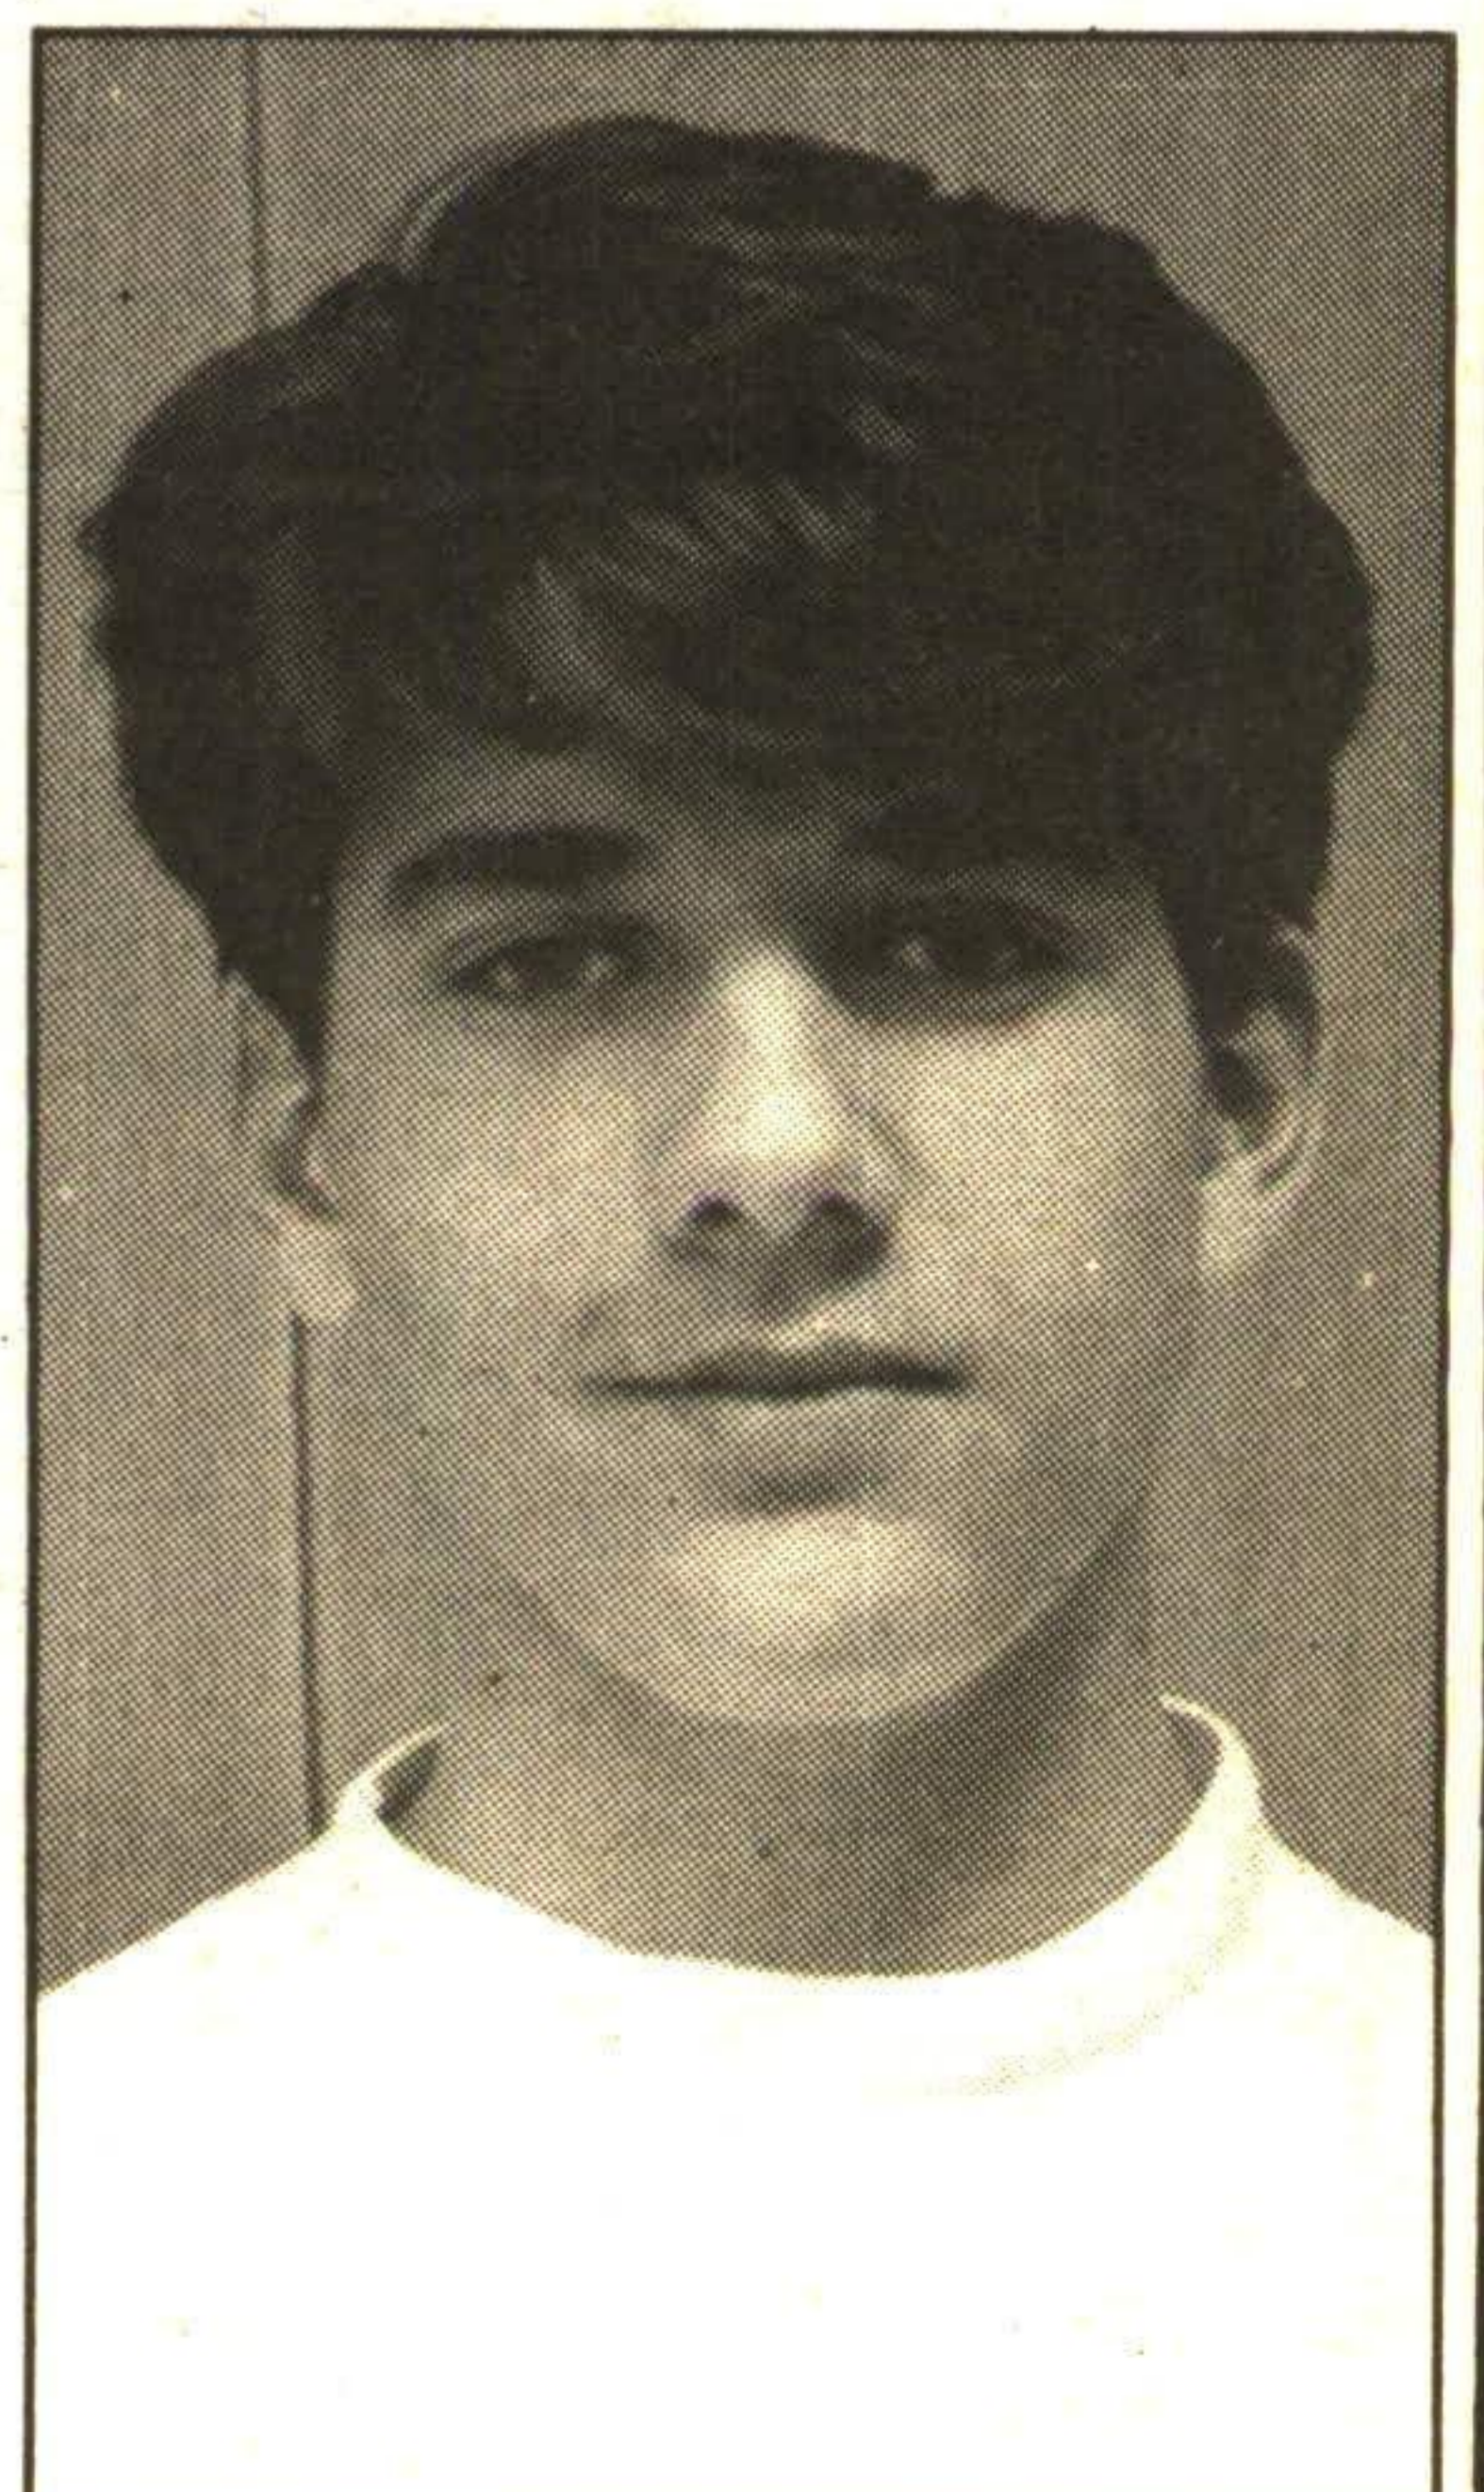

Mike's Power and Heating of Brampton, Dave's Service Centre and Malton Oldtimers are all back to defend the crowns they won last year in the over-30, 35 and 40 divisions, respectively.

Athletes of the Week

SHARON STIGGER and GORD BUCHAN, members of the GDHS Junior badminton squad, helped the team win the the Halton badminton championships April 12. Sharon claimed the crown in the mixed doubles division, while Gord won all of his singles matches.

Think trout!

A lot of Halton Hills anglers will be lured into the happy fishing grounds of the Metro Toronto and Region Conservation Authority when the trout season opens Saturday.

The weekend fishermen wait for all winter is a big one at the Glen Haffy and Heart Lake Conservation Areas, which open at 8 a.m. Saturday and Sunday specially for the trout hunters. Normal operating hours are 10 a.m. to sunset.

Do you have your spot picked out for the season opener this weekend?

Those two areas, along with Bruce's Mill, will be stocked with trout for the opening weekend. Glen Haffy, with a fish rearing station and two trout ponds, is stocked regularly throughout the season.

This year, the customary car parking fee has been replaced: adults now pay $2, seniors $1.50, children $1, and at Glen Haffy, there's an additional $1 per person charge for using the stocked trout pond.

Don't forget your fishing licence. If you need one, they're available at Glen Haffy, Heart Lake.
