Summertime and the living is easy. . . .

By Jeanette Cox

For many it has been a holiday tradition to escape the city and head north to cottage country. Muskoka and Haliburton abound with cottages that have been in the family for generations. New and elaborate cottages are being built but today's real estate prices keep many from realizing the dream of spending a vacation along the shores of a quiet lake.

THERE IS AN ALTERNATIVE..... You can still find rest and relaxation right here in Ontario. Why not consider staying at one of the many resorts found throughout the province? Most offer programmes for all seasons of the year. You can plan an autumn escape, a winter getaway or a spring break but the good old summer time is always the most popular. For this reason you will need to make your reservation well in advance. Your local travel agent is available not only to assist with reservations but also has a great deal of information which help you decide on which resort best suits your needs.

Resorts Ontario "Good Times Guide" is published annually by an association of resort owners and lists information on over 250 great resort destinations. The variety is endless and each resort has its own personality. Some cater entirely to families especially during school vacation while others are designed for the adult vacations specializing in health and fitness or outdoor sports such as water skiing, boating, golf, hunting and fishing also many have planned social programmes for day & evening, while others have programmes designed especially for seniors.

Your travel agency will be able to provide you with the most up to date information on programmes and prices. Often the agents have first hand knowledge of various properties. All resorts are accessible to individuals travelling by car but if you are planning a group getaway you agency may be able to help you make all the necessary arrangements including bus transportation. The number of people who return to the same resort year after year is a testimony to the value found in this type of vacation. Why don't you consider spending your vacation in Ontario this year and discover the friendliness and the all inclusive good value waiting for you at one of the 250 resort properties located throughout this province.
