Police lay criminal charges against Adults Only Video store manager

By JANET BAINE

Halton Regional Police have laid six criminal charges against the manager and owner of the Adults Only Video Store in Georgetown.

Manager Kenneth Finney of Etobicoke and owner Randy Jorgensen will appear in court in Milton on June 3. They are both charged with two counts of possession of obscene material for the purposes of sale, two counts of exposing obscene material to public view and one count of renting and one count of selling obscene material.

The charges were laid on May 1 following the April 18 police raid on the store, one of 22 which were raided the same day. A total of 130 videos were seized from all four stores by Halton Regional Police, and the charges are in relation to two of the videos from the Georgetown store, said Community Relations Sgt. Carey Smith.

Smith said that doesn't mean the other videos were not considered obscene, nor will they end up back on store shelves.

The seized videos have been approved by the Ontario Film Review Board.

"It's an entirely different body (from the police)," Smith said. "What they're using as a yardstick to assess these films, we don't know. We're also saying it doesn't matter."

Smith said that two different government bodies can investigate the same incident and deal with it in the ways which they consider appropriate.

Police waited two weeks before laying the charges because they had to view the videos to make sure parts hadn't been edited out before charges were laid, he said.

Police make arrests in Smith and Stone theft

Police have arrested two men who they believe are responsible for stealing $18,000 worth of copper, brass and tools from Smith and Stone in Georgetown.

A 27 year old Georgetown man and a 21 year old Brampton man have been charged with break and enter and theft over $1,000.

The men were arrested at their homes and they were to appear in court Thursday afternoon. About $3,500-worth of tools from Smith and Stone were recovered, Halton Regional Police said.

A Crimestoppers tip helped police focus their investigation on the men, and led to their arrest. In addition, police found a van registered to one of the men which had broken down near the scene of the crime. While it was empty, it had some small remnants of materials believed to be from Smith and Stone, police said.

The Brampton man has also been charged in connection with another break, enter and theft at Kentucky Fried Chicken on January 26. The front door was smashed in, and over $1,000 in currency was taken from a safe, which was left undamaged, police said.

A Crimestoppers tip helped lead police to the arrest. An Newtonville man was also arrested in connection with this crime. Both men are to appear in Milton court on June 10.
