The Orient.....

This most fascinating destination has something different for everyone.

The most popular cities are Bangkok, Beijing, Hong Kong, Seoul, Singapore and Tokyo from these cities you may depart to other destinations in the Orient.

Bangkok - often referred to as the 'Venice of the East' or the 'City of Angles' with its network of canals, offers the traveller a unique opportunity to see and experience the local urban and rural life. The Choa Phraya river and interlocking canals; shorelines host most of the historic temples, palaces and major landmarks, including the Grand Palace and the Temple of the Emerald Buddha. Within a days touring of Bangkok is the 'Damnoen Saduak Floating Market' and 'Rose Garden'. The most famous river Kawai, with its history and beautiful scenic scenery can be enjoyed from the train which travels along its banks. Shopping is abundant from jewellery to Thai silks of which you can have a garment designed in less than a day from a picture you have chosen for that special occasion. Statistics from the Tourist Authority shows that foreign tourists who have been to Thailand more than one figure as high as 55% out of the total numbers of travelers.

Beijing a major city 3000 years old and capital of China for 700 years. Beijing is the centre of the political, cultural and economic life. With all the many old and historical attractions like the Forbidden City, Tian a Maen Square, Chinese Museum of History, Temple of Heaven, Summer Palace, Ming and Qing Dynasties. Of course your trip would not be complete unless you visited the Chinese Opera and walked on the Great Wall or saw the Pandas at the Beijing Zoo.

Hong Kong "The Pearl of the Orient" is a thrilling and dynamic city with its many exciting places of interest are the Jade Market, Victoria Peak with its 360 degree view of almost the whole territory and the islands of the South China Sea beyond or Aberdeen which was once a quiet fishing village now a thriving town best know for its magnificent floating restaurants, excellent seafood and waterborne population. You may wish to take a tour such as the 'Hong Kong Island' of the "Harbour Cruise", Hong Kong, the living kaleidoscope will by yours in a few hours. Hong Kong is a shoppers paradise where you can buy jewellery, silks, Chinese arts and crafts and have that special suit or dress custom made in 24 hours. Accommodation is no problem in Hong Kong with almost 27,000 rooms available with daily rates between $50.00 U.S. to $2,600 U.S.

Seoul, Korea's Capital with a population of 11 million, is a bustling, clean, and surprisingly modern city, magnificently equipped with luxurious hotels and other facilities. One of the attractions not widely available elsewhere in Asia, is access to excellent gambling casinos and the opportunity to travel by train which is a delightful way to see the rural country side. Seoul is a shoppers paradise with the many stores and high class boutiques for the tourist, there is also the traditional marketplaces which have antiques and handicrafts. Dining is a gourmets delight with a whole range of new tastes just waiting to be savored.

A holiday to all or one of these destinations will be something to always remember.
