

Red Cross Society honors

Georgetown Red Cross honored members for their contributions over the past year. At left, Murray Harrison and Nancy Shultheiss received Certificates of Merit for five years service, while Nancy presented Elizabeth Schmidt with a certificate for being a blood donor 75 times. Below, Erica Thompson presented Henry Kroes with the Distinguished Service Award for 20 years of service, and again Erica (left) presented Jim Clark and Angela de Sylva with Long Service Diplomas. Pat Norris was absent. Bottom right, Cornelius Oosterhof was recognized by Nancy Shultheiss for 100 blood donations. Henry Kroes, Riet Schenk and Daphne Rolfe were honored for their ten years or more service with a Service Award, at the awards night. Anita Wrigglesworth and Geraldine Lewis were absent for their awards. Nancy also recognized Rita Verhey (at left) for her 50 blood donations.
