Locals smoke rivals in bowling Bursary

Wrapping up their bowling season and YBC careers, Georgetown keglers Brian Bell, Dave Ridley and Eddie Doyle "smoked" the competition at the Bursary tournament in Ottawa May 18-20.

Qualifying first over all of the competition was Brian Bell, with scores of 270, 248, 320, 219, 260, 224, 312, 234, resulting in a 2087 total.

From this position Brian moved on to a double-knock off round where he was knocked out by Kevin O'Neill 244-235 and 260-232.

Following close behind was Eddie Doyle, who finished a close fifth position with 248.25 average for eight games, an amazing 1986 total!

Eddie was knocked out of match play-double knock out by finalist Kevin O'Neill, when he rolled a 331 in the final game to move into fourth by eight points.

Rounding out the trio was Dave Ridley who rolled 1744 to finish in 15th position. Dave's high game of 292 was beaten only by teammate Bell.

Congratulations to the three men for their superb bowling prowess and for representing Georgetown Bowl in such high fashion.
