June is seniors' month at Agricultural museum

June is seniors' month and the Ontario Agricultural Museum has extended its annual "Seniors' Days" to include 12 exciting days of activities for the young at heart. From June 3 to 14 inclusive, those 65 years and older will be treated to an old-fashioned admission fee of 65¢.

Besides the museum's regularly scheduled activities, Seniors' Days 1991 will feature introductory tours of the 32-hectare site on tractor-drawn wagons, a quilt display featuring the Canada Packers Quilt Collection in its new permanent home at the museum, dancing demonstrations, musical entertainment, refreshments, and much more.

The museum is a great place for seniors to rediscover Ontario's rural roots and spend a relaxing day in the country. Come and see the evolution of rural Ontario through costumed interpreters, farm animals, displays and unique rural buildings.

The Ontario Agricultural Museum is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., May 21 to September 22. Admission is $3.50 for adults, $1.75 for youths (6-17), $1.75 for seniors (except during Seniors' Days), and $8.50 for families.

Located five km west of Milton, the museum can be reached from Highway 401 via exit 320 or 312 north. Just follow the signs!
