Rene Boulanger of Georgetown won $25,000 in Lucky Stars lottery.

Georgetown man wins $25,000

Rene Boulanger won $25,000 in one of Ontario Lottery Corporation's current instant games, Lucky Stars.

Boulanger, 36, is a printer at North American Decorative Products. The winning ticket was purchased at Target Convenience on Guelph St. He plan to bank the money.

Lucky Stars features 12 different tickets each representing an astrological sign. It also offers players a chance to double their win.

To date more than $4 billion has been raised by Ontario Lottery Corporation for distribution, by the Ontario Government, to a variety of projects.

Weapons decision appealed

By JANET BAINE

A Limehouse business has decided to appeal a court decision on guns it had for sale.

The Provincial court decided last month that 24 Heckler and Kosh MP5-A3 rifles which had been imported from England are prohibited weapons. The guns were seized from Collector's Source in January, 1990.

The guns were converted into semi-automatic mode so they could be legally sold in Canada. But the Halton Regional Police contend they can be readily converted back into automatic weapons, which fire 800 rounds of ammunition a minute.

The guns were being sold by Collector's Source for $1899, but now all 24 will have to be destroyed, so Collectors Source stands to lose thousands of dollars.

Morton Greenglass, the lawyer for Collectors Source, contends he has the upmost respect for the judge, but he thinks he has made the wrong decision.

Greenglass said that a prohibited weapon is "capable of firing more than one round" when the trigger is pulled, but when these weapons were seized, the guns were only capable of firing one round, he said.

"It's not like everybody tries to make it out, that all a person has to do is take a trip into Buffalo" to get a new part and convert the gun, Greenglass said. The parts aren't available to people, he said.

Mike Eacrett, head of the Criminal Investigations Bureau in Georgetown, said he isn't surprised that the decision is being appealed. But, he said he thinks the decision will be upheld.

The appeal date has been set for September 12, 1991 in Toronto.

Collector's Source is not to be confused with Frank Grant's museum of military memorabilia, also located in Limehouse.

Tires slashed

A Toronto man had all four tires slashed and the paint on his car scratched when his car was parked overnight on Guelph St. in Acton overnight Sunday. About $900 damage was caused to the car, police said.

Court appearance

A Georgetown youth was arrested and will appear in court after he jumped in a car which was left running and took it for a joy ride. The youth was riding his bicycle by the Georgetown and District Hospital on May 19 when he saw a car with the keys in the ignition, Halton Regional Police said. He jumped in the car, valued at $4,000, picked up a friend and took the car for a joyride, police said. The next day, he turned himself in to the police.

Stereo stolen

A portable stereo valued at $500 was removed from a basement apartment on Mill St. in Georgetown on Monday afternoon. The apartment is in a multi-unit building with shared facilities.
