JULY 9
Jim & Pat Akers Countrywide Tigers 3
Blake Leavitt Expos 15

Expos pitchers Simon Ford, Joel Springer and Adam Stoyles gave up only three runs to the short-staffed Tigers. Springer nabbed a fly ball hit to the mound and Ed Alcorn's relay to Jesse Viens at first discounted another potential Tigers run. Alcorn (one RBI), Stoyles and Viens (three RBIs) also counted for hits along with Rob May, Matt Sykes (one RBI), Matt Walker and Dan Whitton. When Expos' bats slumped temporarily, May stole two bases to push his hit onto the scoreboard.

Mike Reed D.J. Angels 5
Beaver Lumber Mets 6
 Mike Corlett's double and a Jason Hayes home run kept Mets in contention during the early frames against a determined Angels team. Hayes picked off a bases-loaded pop fly to stall Angels' advance and close out the inning. In the bottom of the final, Derek Lanthier connected for the game-winning RBI, pushing Mets over Angels 6-5.

George & Dragon Yankees 11
J.V. Clothing Blue Jays 13
 Yankees' Daniel Hardstaff opened up on the Jays with a top-of-the-order home run in the first inning. Additional hits by Trevor Cash, Roddy Heinz and Adam Scuralli pushed Yankees to 11 runs, backed by defensive play by Jon Borg and a Jason Estevan - Gerrard Purcell double play.

Jays' Adam McDonald gained an out on a fly ball, but Yanks' scoring pressure forced Jays to rely on the batters. Topher Baker, Alan Gimour, Dylan Lee, McDonald and Shawn Pearce all turned in hits. David Zeni drove in the tying run, setting up the critical moment for Justin Hunt's homer which clinched the win for the Jays.

JULY 11
Mike Reed D.J. Angels 11
Halton Credit Union A's 11
 Both Angels and A's came looking for their first win in the second half of the season. A's took over 3-1 in the first inning. Ryan Gledhill's double opened the second, and by the end of the third A's had stretched the lead to 11-4 on RBIs by Warren Anderson and Mike Madill. Meanwhile, A's foiled Angels scoring opportunities with Jason Higgins and Nick Johnston bringing down five flies, Gledhill's key throw to first, and an out at the plate courtesy of Jamie Larocque. In the fourth, the tables turned. Jeff McIntyre got Angels' ball rolling with a home run which brought in Chad Miersma. For the rest of the evening Angels held A's to three-up-three-down baseball while tying up the score in the fifth. In the sixth and final inning Brendan Alexa got as far as second, but Angels could not bring him in and had to settle for a draw.

Blake Leavitt Expos 15
Beaver Lumber Mets 8
 Mets continued Tuesday's aggressive play with a Derek Lanthier triple, a smooth fly-ball catch and relay for a double play, and three-for-three hitting by Tyler Pearce. Expos held them to eight runs, however, aided by fly ball catches by Simon Ford and Joel Springer, and critical infield stops by John Murray. A single and a double by Matt Walker, along with three RBIs from Matt Sykes contributed to the 15 Expo runs.

J.V. Clothing Blue Jays 11
Jim & Pat Akers Countrywide Tigers 2
 Tigers could not hold their ground against Blue Jays' bats. Plays like Ian Murphy's fly ball catch held Tigers to two runs, while Jays Justin Hunt (HR), Paul Larocque, Dylan Lee (triple), Adam McDonald, Andrew Peden (double), and Jason Watts (triple) swung for 11.
