First-ever car sound contest is a success!

Halton Thunder — the first ever amateur car stereo sound competition in north Halton — rumbled Sunday, August 25 to great success. There were 17 entries, plus lots of spectators to enjoy the day-long event, sponsored by Mobile Sound Systems at the corner of Mountainview Rd. and Armstrong Ave. in Georgetown.

There were five classes:
1-50 watt — single entry, George Toris of Milton, first.

51-100 watt — single entry, Fraser Douglas, of Georgetown, first.

101-250 watt — Glen Emmerson, Georgetown, first (also received highest score of the day); Claudio Belmonte, Downsview, second; Mike Martin of Georgetown, 3rd. Mike also earned the People's Choice Award.

251-500 watt — Andrew Brown, Milton, first; Jason Bogart, Milton, second (only two points behind) and John Crisafulli, North York, third.

500 plus watt — single entry, Chris Loseno, Scarborough, first.

Mobile Sound Systems encouraged by this year's success plans to have another show next year, but bigger and better, held at the Georgetown Fairgrounds.
