007 Card of Thanks

BAKER - A very special "Thank You" to our family and many friends. Also a special thank you to the Golden Age Group for the "Mock Wedding." It certainly made our 50th Wedding Anniversary a big success. Thank you all!

Colin and Pearl Baker

TO the many people who shared our sorrow in the loss of our beloved Maggie, your presence, your kind words of condolence, the many cards, the beautiful floral tributes and the numerous donations made in Maggie's name to the Canadian Cancer Society were all greatly appreciated. To the friends and relatives who so thoughtfully provided lunches in our homes, it was such a help. We wish to thank Rev. Judith Vaclavik for her beautiful tribute to Maggie during the service. To Rev. Peter Barrow of Limehouse Presbyterian Church for his comforting words. The Ladies of Trinity United Church for the lovely luncheon served. The Shoemaker Funeral Home for their gentle understanding and assistance at this most grievous time. We would now like to mention the kind caring V.O.N. nurses and assistants at home during Maggie's illness also the help provided by friends, relatives, Maggie's sorority sisters and associations. Lastly the caring nurses and doctors of the Hamilton Henderson Hospital who did all that was humanly possible to help her and relieve her pain. Thank you one and all.

The Given Family
Tom, Lille, Lorrie, Pat, June and Kathy

WE wish to express our sincere appreciation to all of our loving relatives, friends and neighbours, who supported us in so many thoughtful ways over the past sixteen months. The visits, help with transportation, food donations, flowers, charitable donations, phone calls, letters and cards of encouragement and hope will always be remembered. Special thanks to Reverend Judith Vaclavik, Reverend Peter Barrow, Bruce and Rhoda Shoemaker, United Church Women, Ward 395 Nursing Staff and Medical Staff of Henderson General Hospital, V.O.N. Services and Red Cross Home Care. Throughout Maggie's illness, our family was overwhelmed by the generosity and sincerity of so many kind people. Thanks again for everything.

Allan, Gavin, Matthew and Trevor Hall
