

Snowmobile and ATV Show

Snowmobile and ATV enthusiasts from all over Ontario are eagerly anticipating the opening of the Toronto International Snowmobile and ATV Show on Friday, September 20.

The show officially opens the 1992 season when major Ontario dealers unveil the new product lines from Arctic Cat, Polaris, Ski-doo, Yamaha, Honda and Suzuki. Giant displays showcasing all of these exciting products set the scene for the largest, most exciting show of its kind ever presented in Canada.

The show runs for three days and will be held at the Metro East Trade Centre's new Show Building in Pickering, Ontario. Located on Brock Road just north of the 401 (exit 399 off the 401), the Trade Centre is easily accessible and provides free, paved parking for over 4,000 cars.

Spectators will be treated to a wide variety of exhibits encompassing all aspects of snowmobiling and ATV enjoyment. And for the first time, the products seen at the show can be purchased right then and there, with many being offered at special show prices. This is the place to get set for the 1992 season with all you need to shop for available under one roof.

In addition, the show provides a central 'Feature Area' where show attendees can enjoy live music, listen to racer interviews, see the fashion shows being presented by Choko Designs, or generally relax and meet up with friends and family members in this nature setting of trees, plants and benches.

Show hours are: Friday, 12 noon - 10 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. - 10 p.m.; Sunday, 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. For further show information call (416) 427-4201.
