

Crime Stoppers seeks burglars

By SGT. DAN FARR

The Halton Regional Police in Halton Hills and Crime Stoppers of Halton are seeking the public's assistance in identifying the person(s) responsible for a daylight house entry in rural Georgetown.

On Wednesday, September 11, between the hours of 1:30 p.m. and 5 p.m., a home situated on the north side of 22 Sideroad, west of Highway 25, was entered and ransacked. Entry was gained by cutting a hole in the screen of an open window.

Once inside the home, the culprit(s) stole four rings valued in excess of $2,000. A red metal box containing a collection of Canadian, British and American coins and a box containing family photographs was also taken during this intrusion.

The jewellery taken is described as one woman's emerald ring, one woman's diamond ring, one man's gold and ruby ring and one man's gold wedding ring.

The coins taken included a series of mint sets collected over a 19-year period. Also several 1967 pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters.

Wristwatch robbery

A 12-year old Georgetown boy was robbed of his wristwatch last Sunday afternoon. The youth was walking along the railway tracks by Maple Ave. when he sat down to rest, police said. Three 13 to 16-year old youths approached and one of them grabbed his arm and shook it so that the shoes the boy was carrying dropped from his hand. The thief ran off and dropped the shoes, but a Timex watch which was inside one of the shoes was nowhere to be found, police said.

Ready to greet visitors to Georgetown Little Theatre's 30th anniversary open house at their Stewarttown headquarters recently were members Wendi Hunter, Margie Giddings, Gord Hunt, Cathy Hunt, Dorothy Hunt, Ron Hunt, Derek Remes, Peter Roe, Margaret Kaye, Merv Kaye, Frank McKie, and Sean Watson. GLT is looking for members 16 and over to have fun and add spice and variety to the cast pool. This fall GLT will present their production of Steel Magnolias on October 25, 26, 30, 31 and Nov. 1 and 2.
