The coaches of this team, John Picone and Jim Gallant, felt "delighted and confident of a Halton championship and an OFSSA berth."

The Gordon Alcott Tennis Club still doesn't have a men's singles champion two weeks after the club closed for the season. Mike Hurley and Dean Jackson are trying to schedule their title match, but in the meantime, Ed Rieger (above) is the men's singles consolation champ. Meet the rest of the club champions, page 13.

The Halton league are to put in their own stats this year and the column shall not dwell on these and simply pick out a few highlights from time to time as the writer sees them.

The Industrial league will be covered through the column as usual. There are eight teams in the first division and seven teams in the second. If another male team comes along soon, it could be accommodated to even up the schedule.

Bruce Stevens finished four of his team's six wins and Larry Hunt had three 140s and 120. Gord Inglis closed 110, finishing with bull (50). The Halton league has a new bonus point schedule. High High finishes will score 100-119, two points; 120-139, three points; 140-167, four points and the magic 170 finish five points. Dave Nicholls, Al Murphy, Mike Hope, Paul Kirby, Dave Scutt, Brad Youmans are the leaders in the individual standings to date. This season's MVP is more likely to be determined by the new bonus system than by the wins and losses.

Opening results are Copper Kettle #1, 5 - Hollywood #1, 9; O'Tooles #3, 7 - George and Dragon #2, 7; Time Out, 11 - Copper Kettle #2, 3; George and Dragon #3, 1 - O'Tooles #2, 12; Legion #1, 10 - Hollywood #3, 4; George and Dragon, 9 - O'Tooles #4, 5 and Hollywood #2, 11 - Legion #2, 3.

Dave Scutt hit two 140s back to back.

Some familiar and some unfamiliar names among the early leaders which makes it all interesting and much hard work for stats keeper, Mike Pepper. O'Tooles #1 sat out this first week due to an odd number of teams in membership.

The highly successful youth section is again under way at O'Tooles Sundays at 1 p.m. There will be a small registration fee this season, yet to be determined. Although starting late into the season last year the youths came along in numbers quite nicely by the end. The youth section will again be supervised by Dave Scutt and leader Terry Hancock. The starting age is around nine years, with the ability to reach the bull without stretching. This is the way to develop new players and darts can be a very entertaining time.

'MINERS ENJOY GOLDRUSH

The Goldminers were one of 10 teams vying for honors in five age categories when Georgetown Youth Soccer wrapped up its season with a tournament last Saturday at Cedarvale Park. Coaches Dave Foster and Bill Gadoutsis give top marks to team members Robert Timmings, Jimmy Spoehr, Jeremy Roy, Bryan Foster, Fred Roffel, David deKleer, Shawn Pearce, Sean Currie, Paul Bakker, Errol Smith, Andrew Jones, Jason Gadoutsis, Jamie Tawil, William Ivanovic and Matthew Bosnjak.
