Youth assaulted

A 18-year-old Acton resident was taken to Georgetown hospital after he was assaulted in front of Georgetown District High School Wednesday morning at 8:45 a.m.

An 18-year-old Limehouse resident was charged with assault level I, police said. The victim was in front of the high school with his girlfriend when the accused allegedly came up behind and punched him in the mouth. After a second punch to the head, the victim fell to the ground and the accused punched him repeatedly, police said. The victim was also kicked in the head and stomach area.

When the vice principal of the school came out to find out what was going on, the accused ran away, but he was later arrested at the school.

The victim had a cracked tooth and bruises on his head. He was treated and released from the hospital.

Stolen pumpkins

About 700 pumpkins went missing from a field on 8th Line and 5 Sdrd. overnight Sunday. Three or four pick-up trucks would have been needed to take the pumpkins, police said. Numerous other pumpkins still in the field were damaged.

ning. Over $300 was taken from one locker, and several other players had money stolen from the locker room as well, police said. While the locker room was locked, police believe a key, missing from the staff room, was used to open the lockers.

Car collision

One car was severely damaged and a second was moderately damaged following an accident Friday, Oct 4 at 4 p.m. on Mountainview Rd. in Georgetown. An 86 Ford was going north on Mountainview Rd. when it entered the passing lane to turn left into a private drive, police said. As the car began to turn, it was struck by a second car driving north in the same lane, which failed to stop in time. No charges were laid following the accident. Two passengers in the Ford were taken to Georgetown and District Hospital with minor injuries, police said. They were treated and released.

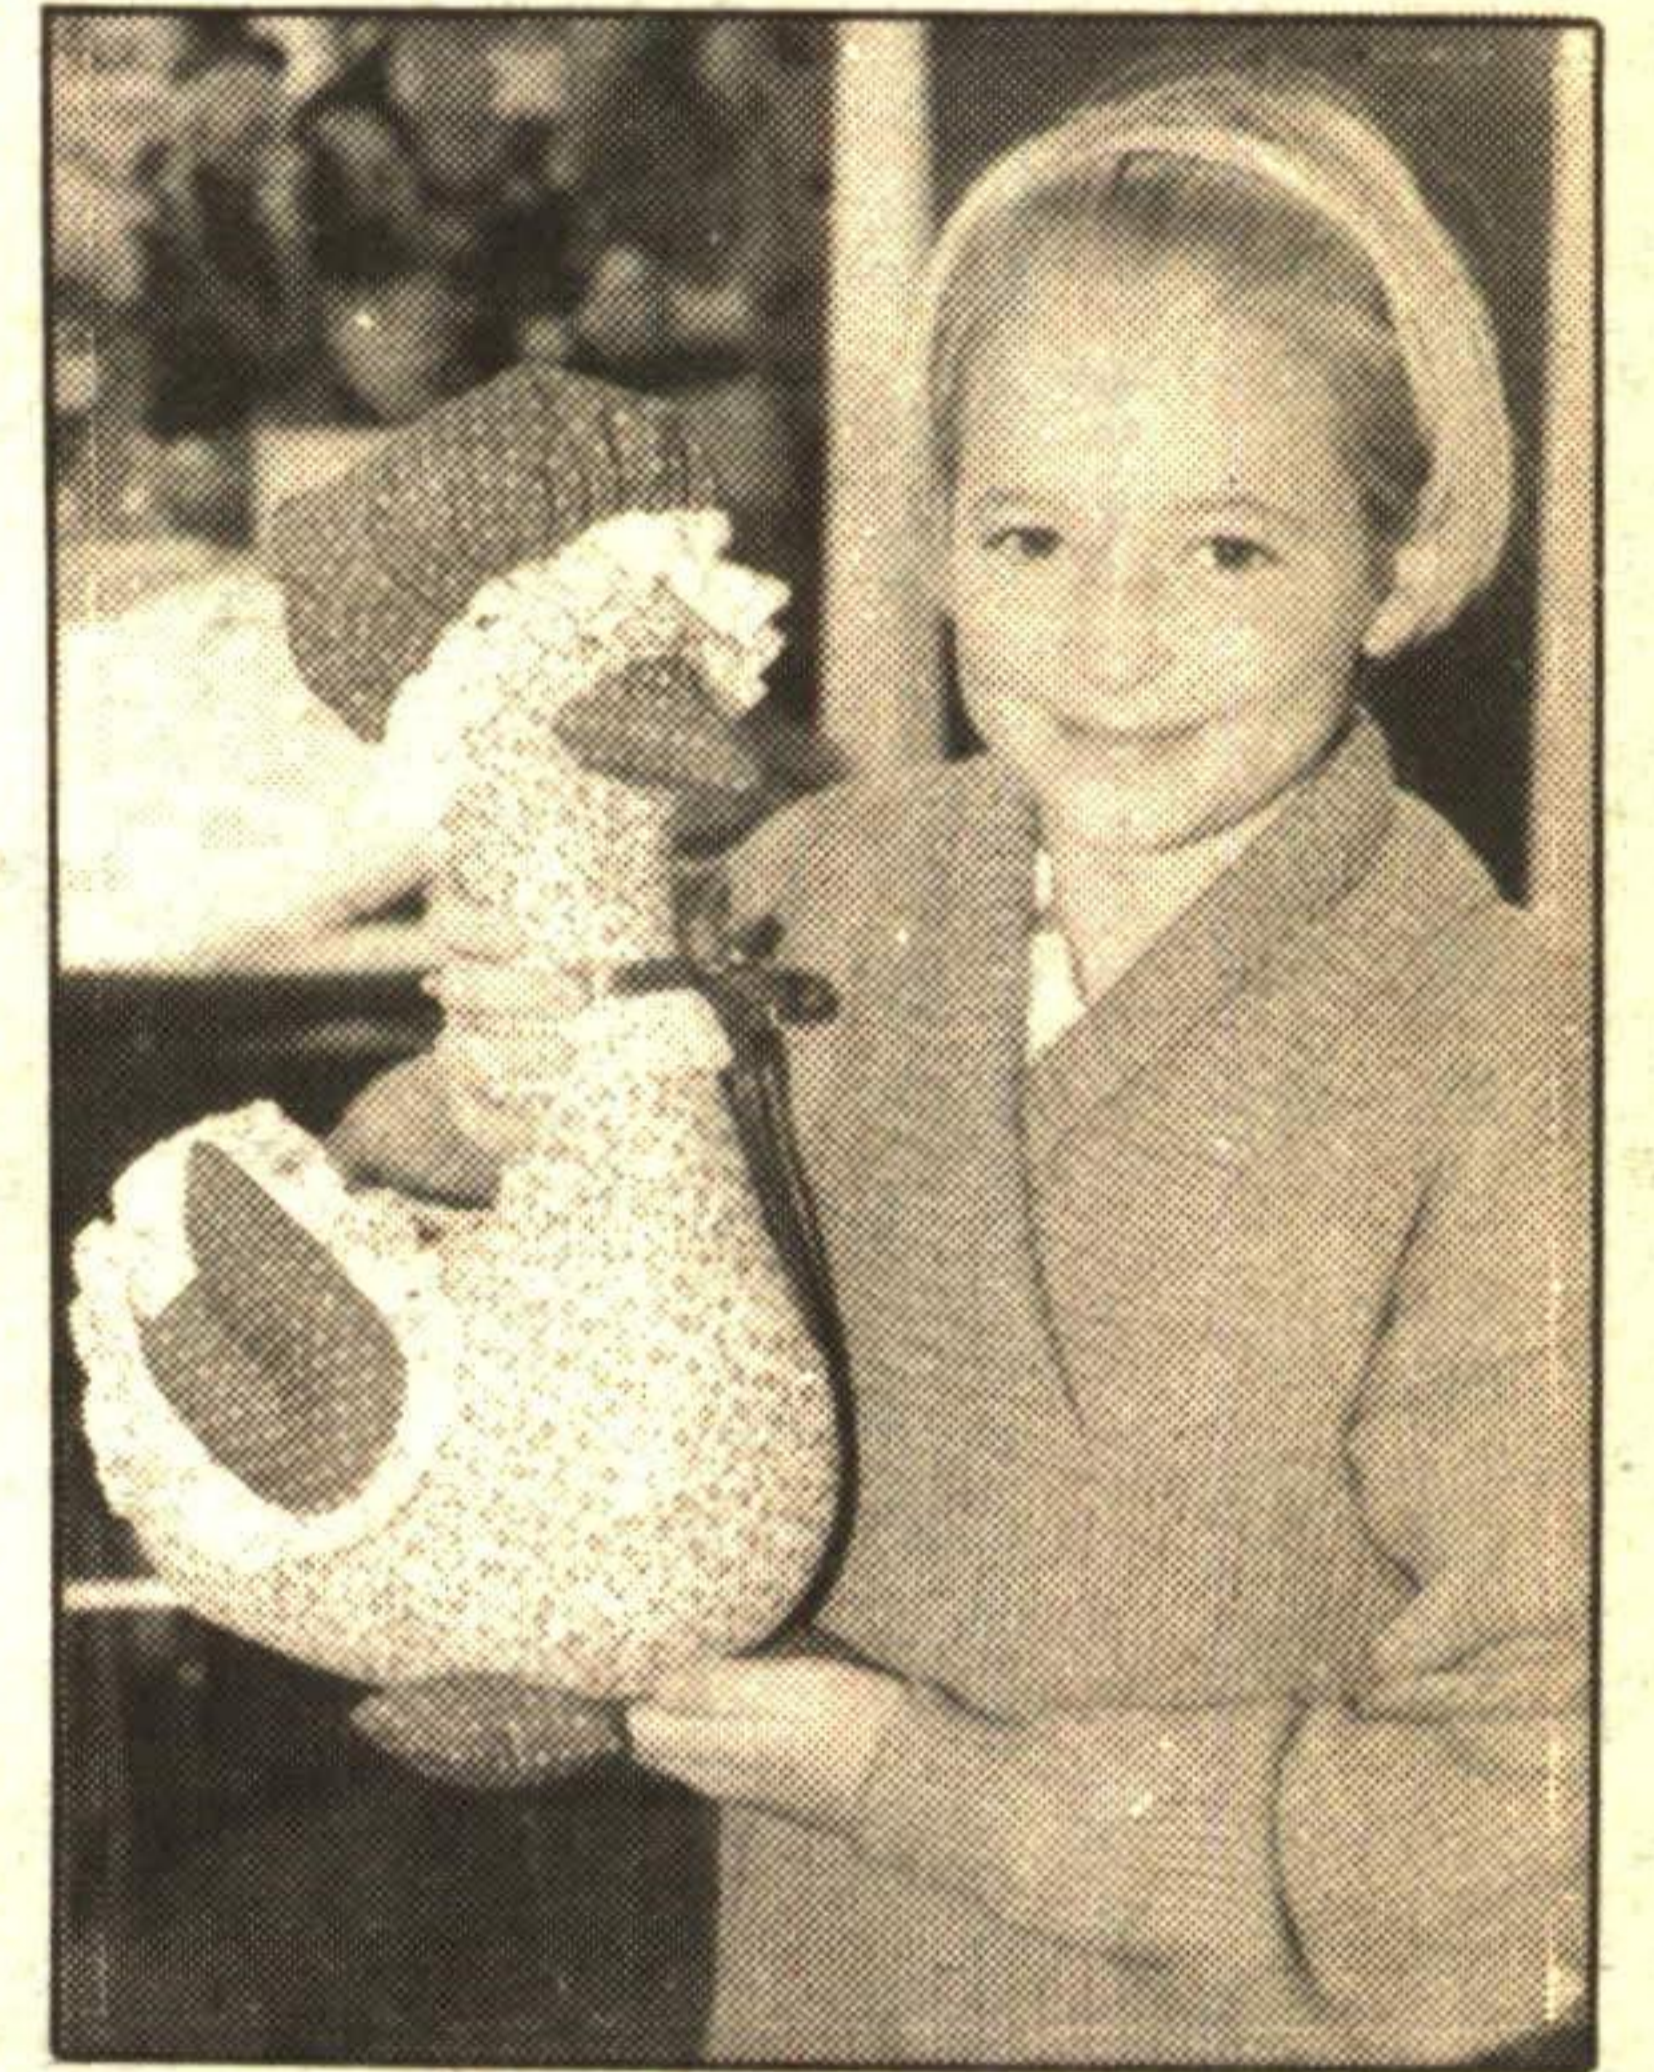

Break and enter

A house on 5th Line at 15 Sdrd. in Georgetown was entered Tuesday afternoon and $2,000-worth of goods were removed. Thieves entered through a sliding side door and the items were taken from various rooms in the house, police said. Stolen items include a video camera, TV, VCR and a ring.

Hit and run

A car severely damaged a 1985 Oldsmobile on Steeles Ave. then fled on Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. The Olds was travelling east on Steeles Ave. near the 9th Line, when a second car pulled out to cross the highway and hit the Olds, police said. The driver of the Olds, an Acton resident, was uninjured.

Eight-year-old Janine Taylor found what she would like for Christmas at the Optimists' Craft Sale, last Saturday. The red and white stuffed Mother Goose was her favorite.
