

Meet the candidate today

Residents of Georgetown South have a chance to meet Ward 4 Regional Council candidate Al Pilutti today (Nov. 2).

He's hosting an open house for the Georgetown South residents only, 2-4 p.m. in the former Home Hardware store beside Belamy's Restaurant.

The Independent/Free Press apologizes to the candidate and voters for failing to ensure that he was listed among Ward 4 contenders in a letter to the editor in Wednesday's edition.

Pilutti is vying with Marilyn Serjeantson and Linda Walton for the ward's Regional Council seat.

JOHNSTON / BARNES - George and Pat Johnston are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Carole Marie Paula to Jeffrey, son of Max and Helen Barnes of Fenelon Falls, Ontario. An outdoor wedding will be held at the home of the brides' parents on July 11, 1992. Grandma Marie Grant extends love and best wishes to her "favourite granddaughter and Snookie".

The Love in Christ Food Bank had a pleasant surprise, Wednesday as several boxes of food, toothpaste, soap, and baby formula were delivered to the Mountainview Baptist Church location. The food was purchased from the proceeds of the Georgetown Realtors Charity Golf Tournament, last August, and was presented to Joan O'Connor of the Food Bank by Garry Dicks of NRS Realty on behalf of Georgetown Realtors.
