

Markham steals thunder from Leaver AAA Hurricanes

The Leaver Mushrooms Hurricane AAA Major Peewees showed they are competitive with Toronto teams during a tournament in Markham Oct. 10-13.

In Friday's game with the Hurricanes against the Markham Thunder, they ran into one of the eventual finalists and lost 2-0. They came out flat and only the sparkling goaltending of Jeff Langille kept it close.

With steady Geoff Beuparlant in goal next day against Sudbury, they faced a big, hard-hitting opponent who initially kept them off balance. It wasn't until the third period that they got untracked and notched two goals to even the score.

Sudbury had scored power play goals in each of the first two periods. Both Hurricane tallies were on power plays too; a beautiful tip-in by Tom Baynton from Justin Davis and Jonathan Atley. Peter Mashinter got the second with less than four minutes left on a quick pass from Doug Janjevich.

It was tension time on Thanksgiving Sunday as the team dressed for their noon game against the well known Toronto Marlies. Three teams, Sudbury, Marlies and Halton were on the bubble to venture into the tournament playoffs. It all depended on this critical game.

Marlies scored first and Halton answered quickly with a goal by Justin Davis from Jonathan Atley. Hurricanes outshot Marlies almost two to one but could not beat their small agile goalie until Davis again put one under him during a goal mouth scramble only to have the official blow the whistle since he had lost sight of the puck.

A Marlie marker in the third put them ahead 2-1. After another flurry of Hurricane shots, Davis deftly had a deflection go into the net with assists from Baynton and Todd Miller. In the dying seconds two Marlies broke in on Langille and only a well placed goal post saved the tie. At this point it got even more interesting.

The officials huddled on ice. Then they took down the official tournament sheet and went to a separate room to determine which team was to advance. A large crowd could only speculate. Finally shouts from the Sudbury contingent signalled which team got it. Marlies and Hurricanes lost out by 13 per cent.

Since defenceman Steven Roy missed the tournament, it left extra duty for Ryan Taylor, Richard Trotter, Tom Baynton and Jonathan Atley, who all performed very well. It was a fine showing and the experience will help in future tournaments.

Tables turned on Proplastex Atoms

Last Sunday (Oct. 27), the Proplastex Atoms travelled to Guelph for an exhibition game which proved to be a fast and exciting game.

Acton took a two-goal, first-period lead by goal scorers David Owen and Richard Raju with assists going to Artem and Monaghan.

During the second period Guelph scored, narrowing the lead to 2-1 for Acton. In the third period, the Guelph squad scored four goals to Acton's one lone counter by Mark Faseruk.

With less than one minute, Coe was pulled from goal for the extra attacker. Guelph scored into an empty net making the final score 6-4 for Guelph.

The Proplastex Atoms played in Kitchener yesterday (Friday).
