Cold Turkey Clinic starts Monday

If you would like to give up smoking this fall, the Lung Association - Halton Region would like to help. They can provide literature on Smoking and Quitting, and they are offering their annual Oakville "Cold Turkey" clinic beginning at 7:30 p.m. November 4, at the Lung Association's Office for five evenings.

Cold Turkey's tremendous success is attributed to excellent speakers, films and group discussions. Many quitters also find it helpful to have somewhere to go after dinner each night.

There is a $10 registration fee for this program, which is subsidized through the public's generous support of the Christmas Seal Campaign. If you would like more information, or to register for the Cold Turkey clinic, please phone The Lung Association - Halton Region at 847-1033.

Registration is limited.
