People helping people

Children and families in the Halton community require experience, wisdom and vitality of adult volunteers to provide support, companionship and skill development in a variety of roles. If you are available to share your skills with needy families, Children's Aid Society offers a volunteer program with training, support and reimbursement of all expenses provided. Jobs include public speaking, case aides and volunteer drivers. Call Halton CAS at 878-2375 or 844-8211.

On October 23, 2nd Georgetown Cub Pack of St. George's Church had two new Leaders Invested by Scouter Jean Layman of District Service Team, assisted by Cubmaster Doug Perrin. ACM Nancy Jackson and ACM John Trainor were given their badges and group neckerchiefs. Above are the new cub leaders with their sons. From left, ACM John Trainor, new chum David Trainor, Cub Colin Jackson and ACM Nancy Jackson.
