

Jacquie Cameron of Hawthorne Hill Studio displays one of her watercolors exhibited at the annual show and sale of the local artist's paintings. In addition to Jacquie's own work, art by local painters like Barbara Brown, Sonia Chivers, Camille Egan and Jo Walterson is featured. The studio will be open Nov. 10, 17, and 24 from 1 to 5 p.m. and is located at 11114 Fifth Line, north of 15 Sideroad.

St. Xavier releases new album

Club 2000/Room 107 will present an album release concert for the local rock band, St. Xavier, on Thursday, Nov. 14.

The band's 10 song album, The Saint Comes Rockin In, was recorded at Metalworks and produced on cassette at Marigold Productions.

The tapes arrived in October and have been in demand ever since. Tapes will be available at the show.

Now the album is complete, the band is looking forward to playing some live performances. New Club 2000 manager, Lloyd Crane, as a gesture to promote local talent, has dropped the regular cover charge for this show.

Historical Society meets

The Esquesing Historical Society will meet at the Georgetown Armoury in the Fairgrounds on Wednesday, Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m. Honorary Colonel E.H. Conover, C.D. will speak.
