

Curlers 'steak' out turf in North Halton curling opener

The curling bonspiel program was launched at Georgetown's North Halton curling rink on Maple Ave. Nov. 9.

The opening event of the season, a mixed bonspiel sponsored by Bob Creasy's Knechtel Food Market in Moore Park Plaza, saw an enthusiastic bunch of club curlers vying for the "Best Steaks In Town." Besides a bounty of thick, freshly cut steaks, the top prize also included weekend wear provided by Knechtel's.

In this bonspiel, the championship game proved to be an evenly matched affair. It featured a rink headed by 28-year-old Mitch Jewell against one skipped by Barry Dunlop, last season's Recreational League trophy winner.

Single points were exchanged in the sixth and seventh ends. Into the final end, it was the Dunlop rink with the advantage of last shot so they started by peeling anything thrown. A miss, however, turned the end into a draw affair such that when it came to the last rock, Dunlop had to draw fully into the four foot ring to claim victory. His shot was taken just inches long by the Jewell vice. It was a steal of one, a 7-6 final score.

This weekend (Nov. 16 and 17) sees the Ontario Curling Association's Zone 9 "Ramada Challenge" event being hosted.

Dunlop Rockers tie it up coming home

Thursday night's curling action at North Halton was highlighted with a come-from-behind tie in the eighth end by Barry Dunlop's Rockers over The Frigidaire Frostys.

Down 7-5 in the last end, Dunlop needed to hit and stick for three and the win but was only able to make the hit, rolling out and settled for the tie.

Other games saw the Senators extend their season to 2-0 with a solid win over Tom Reeds La Guys.

Work That Body - Fit As A Fiddle, picked up their second victory of the season over Mike Potovszky's Rolling Stones.

Paul Barber and his Challengers took no prisoners in their win against the Sign Shoppe Sliders, and Ken McCormack's Three Men and a Skip won their match by a hair over Ian Arnold's Ruby Begonias. McCormack's last rock picked up a hair in the four foot just in time to stop inside Arnold's rock for shot.

Kendale 8 Enders stole two in the eight for a 9-6 win over the Hogliners, and Smith Automotive Wingnuts delivered on time again with their victory over the Hackers.

The final game of the night saw Dave Ashby's Jaws feast on Dave Dunlop's Rink Hounds with a tight 9-7 score to remain undefeated this season.

Game of the week goes to Rockers and Frosted Flakes. See you next week. Good curling.
