CMHA selling greeting cards

The Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA), Halton has a great idea to help you get at least one task off of your Christmas "to do" list.

Once again, CMHA, Halton is selling holiday greeting cards as a fundraiser.

Designs by artists Joyce Kellock and Audrey Matheson which were available in past years are back by popular demand.

Also, new this year is a lovely design by Milton artist Roisin Nelson, entitled Trees for Sale. The card is a reproduction of an original watercolor depicting little children choosing that very special tree.

Cards in packages of 10 are $8 including PST and GST. Ten or more packages are $7 each and 20 or more are $6 each (both including all taxes). Payment can be by cash, personal cheque, Visa or MasterCard. The greeting inside all cards reads, "Best Wishes for a Happy Holiday Season."

As well as for use on your personal greetings list, CMHA suggests that these cards would be an appropriate way to send wishes for the season from a business or community agency, while supporting the work of CMHA.

CMHA is a local branch of a national, voluntary organization dedicated to providing quality mental health services. The branch offers programs in Burlington, Halton Hills, Milton and Oakville.

For more information, or to order cards, call Margaret Howard at CMHA at 845-5044 in Oakville or call 681-6776 in Burlington and 519-853-4477 in Acton.
