Man hit by car

A man is in stable condition at Georgetown and District Hospital after he was hit by a car Tuesday. Jack Presswood was using a snow blower when a driver lost control of her car on Queen St. at McNabb St. in Georgetown 10:30 a.m., police said. The driver went over the curb and the snowblower ended up under the car. Two passengers in the car received minor injuries and were treated and released at the hospital following the accident.

Two people assaulted

An Acton man has been charged with two counts of assault and one of mischief after an incident Sunday night. According to police the man allegedly knocked out his girlfriend, then assaulted her father when he tried to intervene.

Break and enter

A home on Eleanor Cres. in Georgetown was entered and totally ransacked during the day on Monday, with over $11,000-worth of goods stolen, police said. They believe the suspects entered through an open garage where there was a door into the home. There was no sign of forced entry, police said. The thief went into each room, opening all the cupboards and drawers, dumping their contents. Removed were a fax machine, a word processor, $4,000 U.S. currency, a brand new leather coat and the contents of a jewelry box, with an estimated value of $5,600.

Wallet stolen

A wallet locked in a combination locker at North Halton Golf and Country club was stolen while the owner was on the ice Tuesday, police said. The wallet contained over $500.

Halton police form committee to combat violence against women

Halton Police Chief James Harding has called together a number of representatives from Halton organizations to form a committee on violence against women.

Called the Halton Inter-disciplinary Violence Against Women Committee, members include representatives from the Halton Rape Crisis Centre, Halton Women's Place, the judicial system, education and police to address the issues.

The committee was formed following a meeting held Oct. 21 when Harding met with these organizations. The meeting was held in response to concerns that were expressed by residents of Halton after two Burlington women, Leslie Mahaffy and Nina deVilliers were murdered this year.

The committee will develop strategies and initiatives to address the concerns of the community relating to violence against women.

Fire

Briefs

"Call before you dig"

Halton Regional workers accidentally ruptured a natural gas line on Churchill Rd. north in Acton Thursday morning, according to the Fire Department. Union Gas was notified to repair the damage.

$3,000 damage in bakery

The bakery in Georgetown's Miracle Food Mart on Guelph St. received approximately $3,000 fire damage Tuesday afternoon. Someone had piled items onto a deep fat fryer, thought to be disconnected, and it was accidentally turned on, according to the Fire Department. Firefighters quickly extinguished the fire. No injuries were reported.

The Bank of Montreal in Acton raised $400 which they presented to the Acton Fire Fighters Association. Branch Manager Edna Perkins presents the cheque to Larry Frizzell, chair of the Acton Fire Fighters Association. To his left is Sandi Hunter, Linda Ford and Sherry McNabb, staff at the bank. The money was raised by raffling off two handknit sweaters, with a draw held Oct. 31. The winners were Grant McMillan and Tom Peart, both of Acton.
