Bruins in Belleville

By DON McLEAN

The Bodanis Bruins travelled last weekend to Belleville for a Bantam tournament. Teams came from Hamilton, Dundas, Toronto, Georgetown plus various towns near Belleville.

The Bruins' first game was against their old nemesis, Dundas, who they play in league play. We were short three regular players due to illness or injury. Dundas outscored the Bruins 2-1 in the first. Mark Boucher scored from Jason Quin late in the first.

In the second again Dundas outscored the Bruins 3-1 with Dave Bouskill potting our lone goal on a pass from Rob Smith. Dundas poured in three more goals in the third before the Bruins' Dave Boere knocked one in from Mark Boucher, then Steve Onoprijenko closed it out on passes from Jeff Hewitt to Dave Bouskill who passed to Steve.

The Bruins' captain Dave Bouskill got a match penalty late in the third, a game that was badly, in my opinion, refereed. There was no need for the match penalty.

Saturday morning, the Bruins minus captain Bouskill, faced Port Hope. The Port Hope team quickly took a two-goal lead before David Boere turned passes from Paul Sandifer and Mark Boucher into a goal, however at the end of period one, Bruins trailed 3-1.

Quickly capitalizing on our disorganization Port Hope was ahead 6-1 midway in period two before Sandifer, the sniper, got untracked. Paul scored two in the second, one from Mark Boucher, the other from Andrew Elinesky and Mike Bahr.

Paul started the third period with his third of the morning, unassisted to draw the Bruins to 6-4 before Port Hope got their final goal. The Bruins ran out of time, getting two goals in the final two minutes - Jason Quin from Dave Boere and Mark Boucher, then Kevin Lumb from Boucher and Sandifer.

The Bruins played well but just couldn't capitalize on their power play chances. They missed the leadership in captain Bouskill.

Not wanting to be shut out, the Bruins played tough against Picton but fell behind 3-1 at the end of the first. Kevin Lumb, our "old reliable" defenceman kept us in the game on a pass from David Boere.

The Bruins came alive in period two with four goals to one by Picton. Mike Bahr started them off on a solo shot then Rob Smith found the mark with Jason Quin and Gary McNeily assisting. Mark Boucher scored the Bruins' fourth goal from Elinesky and Boere. Goal five came from sniper Paul Sandifer as did number six, Paul from Jason Quin and Gary McLean. A 6-4 win! Too bad the Bruins start slowly. All we need is a five game tournament for with more time they would have won game two and the way they played game three they were really flying.

Both Chad Hughes and Steve Heinz played outstanding games in goal and at times in spite of Bruins' errors and penalties kept the team in the games.

Two weeks from now the Bruins are away for another tournament, determined to start quicker and harder and with Dave Bouskill and Wes Burke back in action the Bruins will be a team to be reckoned with.

Hotham had another good shift at the 9:00 mark as the Georgetown team applied great pressure to find the go-ahead goal. Finally at the 1:28 mark Roddy Heinz's heads up play on a beautiful well-executed feather-like pass found Ryan Bobor in the clear. Bobor attracted two Milton defencemen and put a perfect pass over to Dan Smith who made no mistake. This shorthanded goal brought the second period to an end, 2-1 for Georgetown.

Milton came through with three consecutive goals at the 2:21 mark, 1:48 mark and 1:06 mark to ice the game. Georgetown played hard, kept their heads, but came up short.

The effort was strong, but full marks to Milton for a great comeback. Honorable mention to the never say die group of Jamie Larocque, Trevor Cash, Josh Travers, Jason Hayes and Mike Corlett.

The next Georgetown Minor Atom home game is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 15 at 6 p.m. at Memorial with Burlington providing the opposition.

Pro Sports come up short

Georgetown's M and M Pro Sports Minor Atom hockey club was defeated 4-2 by Milton Docs and Dents on Dec. 3 at Thompson Arena.

The first period found the Georgetown team jumping to a quick one goal lead at the 8:45 mark with Jason Campbell working hard to carry the play three-quarters length of the ice, before Brent McClung picked up the loose puck and fed Matt Hotham a perfect pass. Hotham made no mistake and scored to give the lead to Georgetown.

Georgetown continued to apply pressure on Milton and had a goal by McClung disallowed because Dan Smith was trapped in the Milton goal at the 5:55 mark. Ryan Carter brought the period to a close with a beautiful butterfly save at the 30-second mark. The first period ended 1-0 for M and M Pro Sports.

Milton tied the game at the 9:41 mark of the second period on a rebound after Ryan Carter made the initial stop. Georgetown's Mike Rovere, Jay Campbell and Matt

Dodge squad doubled 4-2

Last weekend, the Mal Dodge Remax Peewees hosted an exhibition game against Acton at Alcott on Saturday and travelled to Brampton Memorial on Monday for their second league meeting against the Maroons.

Saturday's Halton Hills match up was fast paced with Acton coming out on top 6-4.

Georgetown started things off at 7:14 of the first on Allan Rasmussen's goal set up by Joshua Malinosky.

Acton picked up things from there scoring twice late in the period and again early in the second to take a 3-1 lead.

The home side closed the gap at 11:22 of the second with Rob Pilgrim's marker assisted by Mike Walinga and Trevor Crane.

Acton stretched their lead, scoring two, 16 seconds apart midway through the period, and Georgetown's Jamie Briggs made it 5-3 on a set-up from Walinga at 1:21 to close out the second.

Both clubs scored in the third, Acton at 5:12 and Georgetown's Trevor Crane unassisted at 2:18 for a 6-4 final.

On Monday it was a late 9 p.m. start at Brampton's Memorial Arena.

The last meeting between these clubs was a lopsided chippy affair that is better forgotten.

Brampton opened the scoring at 9:13 of the first, a lead that held until 9:27 of the second when Georgetown's Ken Armstrong tied things up with his low shot to the corner.

Brampton reacted quickly with the go-ahead goal at 9:16 followed by Rob Pilgrim's tally at 9:00 even, from Stephen Markham to knot it at two apiece.

The Maroons capitalized on a powerplay opportunity scoring at 6:38 of the second and carried this lead all the way to the buzzer scoring their fourth with just one second on the clock into the empty net for a 4-2 win.
