048 SalesTelemarketer
Laboratory Chemicals

Caledon Laboratories is a Canadian producer of reagent chemicals and solutions for use in laboratory analysis. During 1991 we have greatly expanded our product line and introduced a comprehensive new catalogue.

We require a mature sales oriented person to take part in a systematic telemarketing programme to qualify leads and obtain orders. Telemarketing experience is not necessary, but the successful candidate will have excellent oral communication skills and some post high school training in chemistry. Fluency in French is desirable but not essential.

This is an entry level position with attractive opportunities for advancement within our sales department, or operations group.

We offer competitive compensation, including salary and a progressive benefit package of life insurance, health, dental and pension plans. Please send your resumé in confidence to:
