

Officers assaulted

Two officers responded to a disturbance at a restaurant in Acton just after midnight Monday and say were assaulted by a Brampton woman. One officer's glasses and cap were knocked off, and the other officer's face was scratched. The 18 year old woman was arrested, handcuffed and taken to the police station in Georgetown, police said. She has been charged with assaulting an officer and escaping lawful custody.

Man charged

A Georgetown resident was charged with making an unsafe turn after an accident Wednesday morning. The man was going south in his 1989 Ford on Victoria St. when he turned left in front of an oncoming 1992 Mercury, police said. The two cars collided and the Ford was severely damaged while the Mercury was lightly damaged.

Break and enter

A VCR worth $50 was stolen from an Acton home on Wednesday afternoon. Someone entered the house through an unlocked front door, went into the dining room and removed the VCR, which was on top of the television, police said.

Man arrested

A man who went into a Georgetown apartment and stole a wrapped Gameboy from under the Christmas tree on Christmas Day was arrested Wednesday. Police found the man at a Brampton residence, then went with him to his home in Bolton, where the Gameboy was found. The man is to appear in Milton court on Friday, police said.

Spitting assault

A woman was arrested and charged with assault for spitting on a youth twice at a Georgetown group home early Monday morning. The 16-year old girl became upset with the youth for an unknown reason, police said.
