

M&M Minor Atoms drop pair of contests

The Georgetown M & M Pro-Sport Minor Atoms began the first week of the new year by hosting Chinguacousy at Memorial then travelling to Brampton.

On January 5, Georgetown took on a Chinguacousy team that had come to town wanting to avenge the locals for an earlier 10-3 trouncing; the Georgetown teams first period of hockey since December 21 ended scoreless, partly a result of fine defensive plays by Jason Rayes and Bryan Stuttard.

The second period, began with each team scoring two goals in the first 58 seconds.

Just 13 seconds into the period, the line of Hotham, Campbell and Rovere, who accounted for all of Georgetown's scoring, put the M&M's up 1-0 with Jason Campbell and Mike Rovere combining on nice goal, only 15 seconds later, Matt Hotham out-manoeuvred two defencers, then tucked one past the goalie for Georgetown's second goal, Mike Rovere assisted. Chinguacousy replied at the 43 and 58 second marks to tie the score at 2-2.

Roddy Heinz, Josh Travers, Ryan Bobor and Dan Smith all displayed excellent penalty killing late in the second by not allowing any shots-on-goal during back to back penalties. With 4:02 remaining, Hotham scored his second of the game; a replay of his first, Jason Campbell assisted on this marker, that took the M&M Pro Sports squad into the third period leading 3-2.

An excellent poke-check by Ryan Carter denied Ching a goal midway through the final frame, but they managed to tie the game at three on a power-play goal with five minutes remaining.

The 15-day layoff took its toll as Ching forced the play late in the game, scoring from a goal mouth scramble with 32 seconds remaining to claim a 4-3 victory.

On January 9, the M&M Pro-Sport team travelled to Brampton, team coaches Jeff Sargent, Tom McMenemy and Vik Nevrela and trainer Ed Pearce then beared witness to what a "Hot" opposing goaltender can do to nullify a strong, offensive team-effort.

Brampton took advantage of a mis-played rebound at 5:37 to take a 1-0 lead. Hard work and forechecking by the line of Trevor Cash, Mike Corlett and Jamie LaRocque resulted in two scoring opportunities

Tyler Pearce made an excellent glove-save at the four minute mark, but Brampton scored a deflected goal with two minutes remaining to take a 2-0 lead into the final period.

The Georgetown M&M's had numerous scoring chances on powerplays made possible by Brampton penalties with 7:19 and 3:53 remaining, but all were denied by the Brampton goal tender.

Although the final score was 3-0 Brampton, following an empty-net marker, it was a solid team-effort, played without penalties and backed-up by Tyler Pearce's solid goaltending.
