Large turn-out to Robbie Burns Dinner

With an army of workers that tackled tasks such as set-up, food preparation, decorating and then putting on a lovely program, the 5th Annual Robert Burns Dinner and Dance was a huge success. The Community Centre had a terrific Scottish atmosphere, right from the pictures hung around the room to the napkins depicting Robbie Burns with his words "It's coming yet for a' that, That man to man the world o'er, Shall brithers be for a' that."

Brian Arseneault was the MC for the evening and joined by his wife, Joyce, sang a most stirring Amazing Grace. Don McEachern piped in the haggis which was carried in Fred Shortill. The Address To The Haggis was given by Sandy Keir whose accent lent a distinctive flavor to the recital. Mrs. Margaret Jamieson gave the Selkirk Grace and then a mountain of food was served buffet style.

After the meal, Bill Dowell recited The Immortal Memory followed by Fred Shortill singing The Star O' Robbie Burns. Ewen MacDonald led a lighthearted toast to the lassies, which was replied with a toast to the laddies led by Betty MacDonald.

From song sheets provided, the audience sang along, reviving many war time songs. Throughout the evening the music accompanying the singing was provided by Mrs. Eileen McEnery on piano with Ernie Mc-

Enery on fiddle. Murray May was the caller for the square dances. A mini version of a pipe band was headed by Joe Sellors, accompanied by Don McEachern also on pipes, with Larry Burningham, Joe Sellors on drums; the foursome delighted the crowd. This group belongs to the Lorne Scots Pipe Band.

The lengthy program continued with more Scottish ballads and included a quartet of Brian and Alyson Arseneault with John and Leny VanderGriert. The VanderGrients, former residents had travelled all the way from Ottawa to attend the festivities. A number of really great prizes were won such as Phantom of the Opera tickets.

Many hours by many hands were spent putting together the Robbie Burns Dinner. All these wonderful workers are to be commended for a fantastic job.

Hall meeting disappointing
To say the Annual Hall Board meeting was a bust would be an understatement. Along with the seven board members, only four people showed up. This poor attendance has put the Hall Board in great peril. Three members stepped down and only one position was filled from the floor, leaving the Board having to find two more board members.

So far the Hall Board for 1992 will be made up of Karen Smith, Betty Andrews, Jim Bailey, Doris Topolsek, representing Erin Township Council and Rob Heaton representing Halton Hills Council.

Tuesday, Feb. 11, 7:30 p.m. was the time set for another meeting. This meeting just has to have support or the Hall Board is in jeopardy. Two new members have to be recruited. If you have any time to spare for your community please contact Karen Smith at 853-2771. The very life of the Community Centre is dependent on getting people involved. Even a little time devoted, could go a long way.

Despite the poor turnout, a great number of items were discussed. Chairperson Karen Smith gave an update on the basement renovations. A five year budget was revealed showing a sum of $198,000 being allotted. Completing basement renovations, developing the soccer field, and the purchase of bar fridges are a few of the items that were included in the 1992 budget.
