Appeal 'Spiel

Big Brothers of Halton is busy preparing for its 14th annual Appeal Spiel fundraising event scheduled for March 21.

The Appeal Spiel, which last year raised more than $17,000 for the organization, will be held at the Oakville Curling Club.

This year, Big Brothers hopes to raise $20,000. The event is designed to accommodate 28 teams from different occupational groups throughout Halton.

Each team consists of four players and is expected to raise a minimum of $500 in pledges. Curlers collect money by finding pledges to sponsor them.

Participants don't necessarily have to be expert curlers. The curling bonspiel runs for one day, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Lunch, as well as prizes, are included.

For more information contact Irene at 847-7267.

Top skier

Blair Jackson of Georgetown led the Glen Eden Skit Team to a first place finish in a four team meet last weekend. Jackson was the fastest down the slopes to claim the gold medal.

The Georgetown Figure Skaters Club has returned from last Sunday's 1992 Peel/Halton Inter-Club competition with more than a few victories to boast about. The team and its standings are (from left, back row) Erin Scudder, Ninth — Senior Bronze Solo Dance; Danielle Dembie, Second — Senior Ladies; Tara Hart, Fourth — Intermediate Ladies; Sarah Hepburn, Third — Junior Silver Solo Dance; (front row) Brianne Beaumont, Seventh — Canfigureskate Ladies; Janice Somers, First — Preliminary Ladies; Mark Fedchyshyn, First — Preliminary Men; Cindy Benner, Fifth — Preliminary Ladies; Heather Parker, Fourth — Pre-juvenile Ladies. Absent are Peter Johnson, Brooke Remenda, Lesley Watson, Tracy Noblett.

Bulls up twoSabres in must-win situation

The Acton Sabres knew it wouldn't be easy as they headed into the Mid-Ontario Junior C playoffs against the Bradford Bulls, but they were hoping that their win streak over the Bulls might continue.

In regular season play the Sabres topped the Bulls in all four meetings. The playoffs have been a different story.

Bradford currently leads the best of seven series 2-0 after claiming a 5-3 win in Bradford on Tuesday and adding a 4-2 overtime win at the Acton Community Centre on Wednesday night.

In both matches the Sabres carried 2-0 leads into the second stanza. On both occasions the orange, blue and white watched those leads slip away.

In a penalty-filled game one the Sabres got on the board at the 15 minute mark as Blair Breen lit the lamp with an unassisted effort.

The Sabres seemed to take control a couple minutes later as

All the second period scoring was done in the first three minutes. The Bulls got back to within one after only 39 seconds. It was the sign of things ahead.

The Sabres rallied with Brian Rasmussen bulging the twine at 1:18 of the frame from Mike Sutherland and Van Dam, but that was all the scoring Acton would do.

The Bulls got that one back a minute later and the two sides headed to the dressing room with the Sabres holding a 3-2 edge.

The final frame belonged to the Bulls as they scored three unanswered goals to take the early series lead.

A total of eight players were ejected from the contest as the two teams combined for a total of 327 penalty minutes.

the following night in Acton it was very much the same script, with fewer penalties.

The Sabres once again jumped out to a 2-0 first period lead only to have the Bulls rally in the second.

This time neither side could manage to score in the final frame setting up overtime.

Russ James provided all the scoring the Bulls would need in the extra frame as he beat Acton netminder Greg Powell early in the period.

The Sabres tried to find the equalizer but the Bulls added on into the empty net for a 4-2 win and a 2-0 series lead.

John Ventresca and Travis Riggin did the damage for Acton while Breen, Paul Cummings, Mike McElroy and Adam Hilts counted assists.

The Sabres needed a win Friday night (after press deadline) to avoid going down 3-0 in the series. Games four and five are slated for Bradford on Sunday and Tuesday evenings. Game six, if needed, will be played at the Acton Community Centre on Wednesday night at 8:30 p.m.

Scoring spree at North Halton

Recreational curling went to the offence at North Halton on Thursday.

The Sign Shoppe Sliders scored two big ends early and held on for a 10-6 win over the Smith Automotive Wingnuts.

Dave Ashbee's Jaws snacked on the Hog Liners 7-6 while Barry Dunlop's Rockers downed LaGuys by the same margin.

Ian Arnold's Ruby Begonias wilted Work That Body 8-6 while Don Campbell's hackers doubled up the Challengers 8-4. The Frigidare Frosty and 8-Enders both scored lopsided wins.

LOCAL CURLERS CLAIM TOP HONORS AT PEEL-HALTON

Playoff preview

The opponent has been determined. The only thing still to be decided is where the series will begin.

The Georgetown Chrysler Raiders dropped an 8-3 decision to the Brampton Capitals on Thursday evening in a game that decided third spot in the Central Ontario Junior B standings.

Now the Raiders will be hard-pressed to hang on to fourth, as the Burlington Cougars have slipped into that position.

The Cougars and Raiders will meet in the best-of-five quarter-final series but dates and times must still be determined.

If the Cougars lose to Ajax and the Raiders, Georgetown will gain fourth and home ice advantage. If Burlington wins either the series will begin on Cougar ice.

The Raiders played the crucial contest without all-star netminder Carmelo Giurleo, who got the call from the Sudbury Wolves of the OHL. Kevin Rutledge, Todd McKee, Danny Colacito and pat Tassadri were also out for the contest.

Scott Humber, Charlie Humber and Duane Lewis did the Georgetown scoring.

The playoff contests with Burlington will begin early next week.

Gymnasts perform

Several members of the halton Hills Gymnasts Club competed at the Ontario Gymnastics Association Qualifying Meet in Hamilton last weekend.

Daniela Soria earned gold on the bars while teammate Krista Meads earned silver in the same event. Ashley Johnson earned third in the event.

Johnson also earned a bronze in the Pre-Argo Floor competition and eighth overall.

As a team Soria, Meads, Robinson, Ainslee Emerson, Jennifer Robertson and Tracy Weyermars took home second in the 24 competitor event.

Jennifer Stocks competed in the Tyro B division earning 9.0 on floor, 8.0 in vault, 9.15 on the bars and 8.80 on the beam for a fourth place finish overall.

The local gymnasts will now prepare for their club championships, slated for February 22 and 23.
