Globe set to perform musical South Pacific

Georgetown Globe Productions has just completed the difficult job of casting for their spring showing of Rodgers and Hammerstein's South Pacific.

This 1940's musical, adapted from James A. Michener's novel "Tales of the South Pacific", brings to life some of the most popular songs ever sung. "Some Enchanted Evening" and "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" are just two examples of the divergent musical score which move the story through its varied plot.

The story is set in the exotic

French islands of the Coral Sea at the time of American Military occupation during the Second World War. It is a colourful account of Island characters like the crudely charming Bloody Mary. It is a story of romance between the handsome French Plantation owner Emile de Becque and the country-sweet Nellie from Little Rock U.S.A. It is a tale of military life in the alternatively anxious and monotonous days of war in the South Pacific.

Let Globe Productions turn your thoughts ahead to spring and the "South Pacific". Show dates at the John Elliott Theatre are: April 30, May 1,2,3 and May 7,8,9. Tickets are $12.00 per person and can be purchased at Royal LePage Real Estate in Georgetown beginning March 2.

CALENDAR

Children's Show

Children's entertainer Jim Parker will bring his show to Georgetown District High School next Saturday, Feb. 22.

Parker, who has worked on Mr. Dressup with Ernie Coombs for the past 5 1/2 years, will be here to play many children's favorites, courtesy of the Maple Co-Op Nursery School.

Tickets for the 1 p.m. concert are $4 each and are available at Delrex Shoke Shop, Georgetown Knetchel Foods and Belamy's Restaurant in Georgetown.

Winter Carnival

The Acton High School winter Carnival planned for Monday, February 24 to Thursday, February 27 promises to be four action packed days for Acton High School students and the community.

There's a wide variety of activities including a volleyball tournament, cross country skiing, bowling, curling and skating.

The "Wheels for Matthew" committee is delighted that two events will earn money for the van.

The Monday Superstars Competition and Staff-Student Volleyball Tournament admission fees will be donated to the committee. Also everyone in the community is welcome from 7-9 p.m. on Thursday, February 27 at Fairy Lake for a Skating Party. Although no admission will be charged the profits of the refreshment sales will also be donated to the "Wheels for Matthew" committee.
