

Midgets suffer playoff setback

The Georgetown Sunny Acre Midgets hockey squad opened their Tri-county playoffs with a 5-3 loss at the hands of the Chinguacousy Blues.

After spotting Ching a 1-0 lead, Mark David tied the score with assists from Derek Ellard and Ryan Pells. The Blues went ahead 2-1 before Tim Presswood evened the count with a goal, his first of the night, from Dustin Thompson and Chris Barrow.

After that it was all Chinguacousy as they popped in three unanswered goals. Sunny Acres pulled goaltender Tim Kingston for an extra attacker late in the third and Presswood deposited his second goal from Barrow and Shawn Pearson but that was all the scoring Georgetown could muster.

Game two of the series goes on Sunday at 5:15 p.m. at Alcott arena.

Indoor soccer battles heating up

After two weeks rest, the girls indoor soccer teams resumed play at Georgetown High School on Sunday, Feb. 22 with the Purple People Eaters and the Red Devils battling out a 1-1 tie.

Allison Barclay scored first for the Purple People Eaters in the first half. Excellent goal tending for the team was provided by Erin Longworth and Angie Crane. However, Cindy Benner was able to tie the game late in the second half as she was set up nicely by teammate Janine Taylor in front of the goal.

In the second game it was a re-match between the Golden Rockets and the Blue Bombers, but unlike the first match where the Blue Bombers won a closely fought match, the Golden Rockets pulled away early and never looked back winning 5-3.

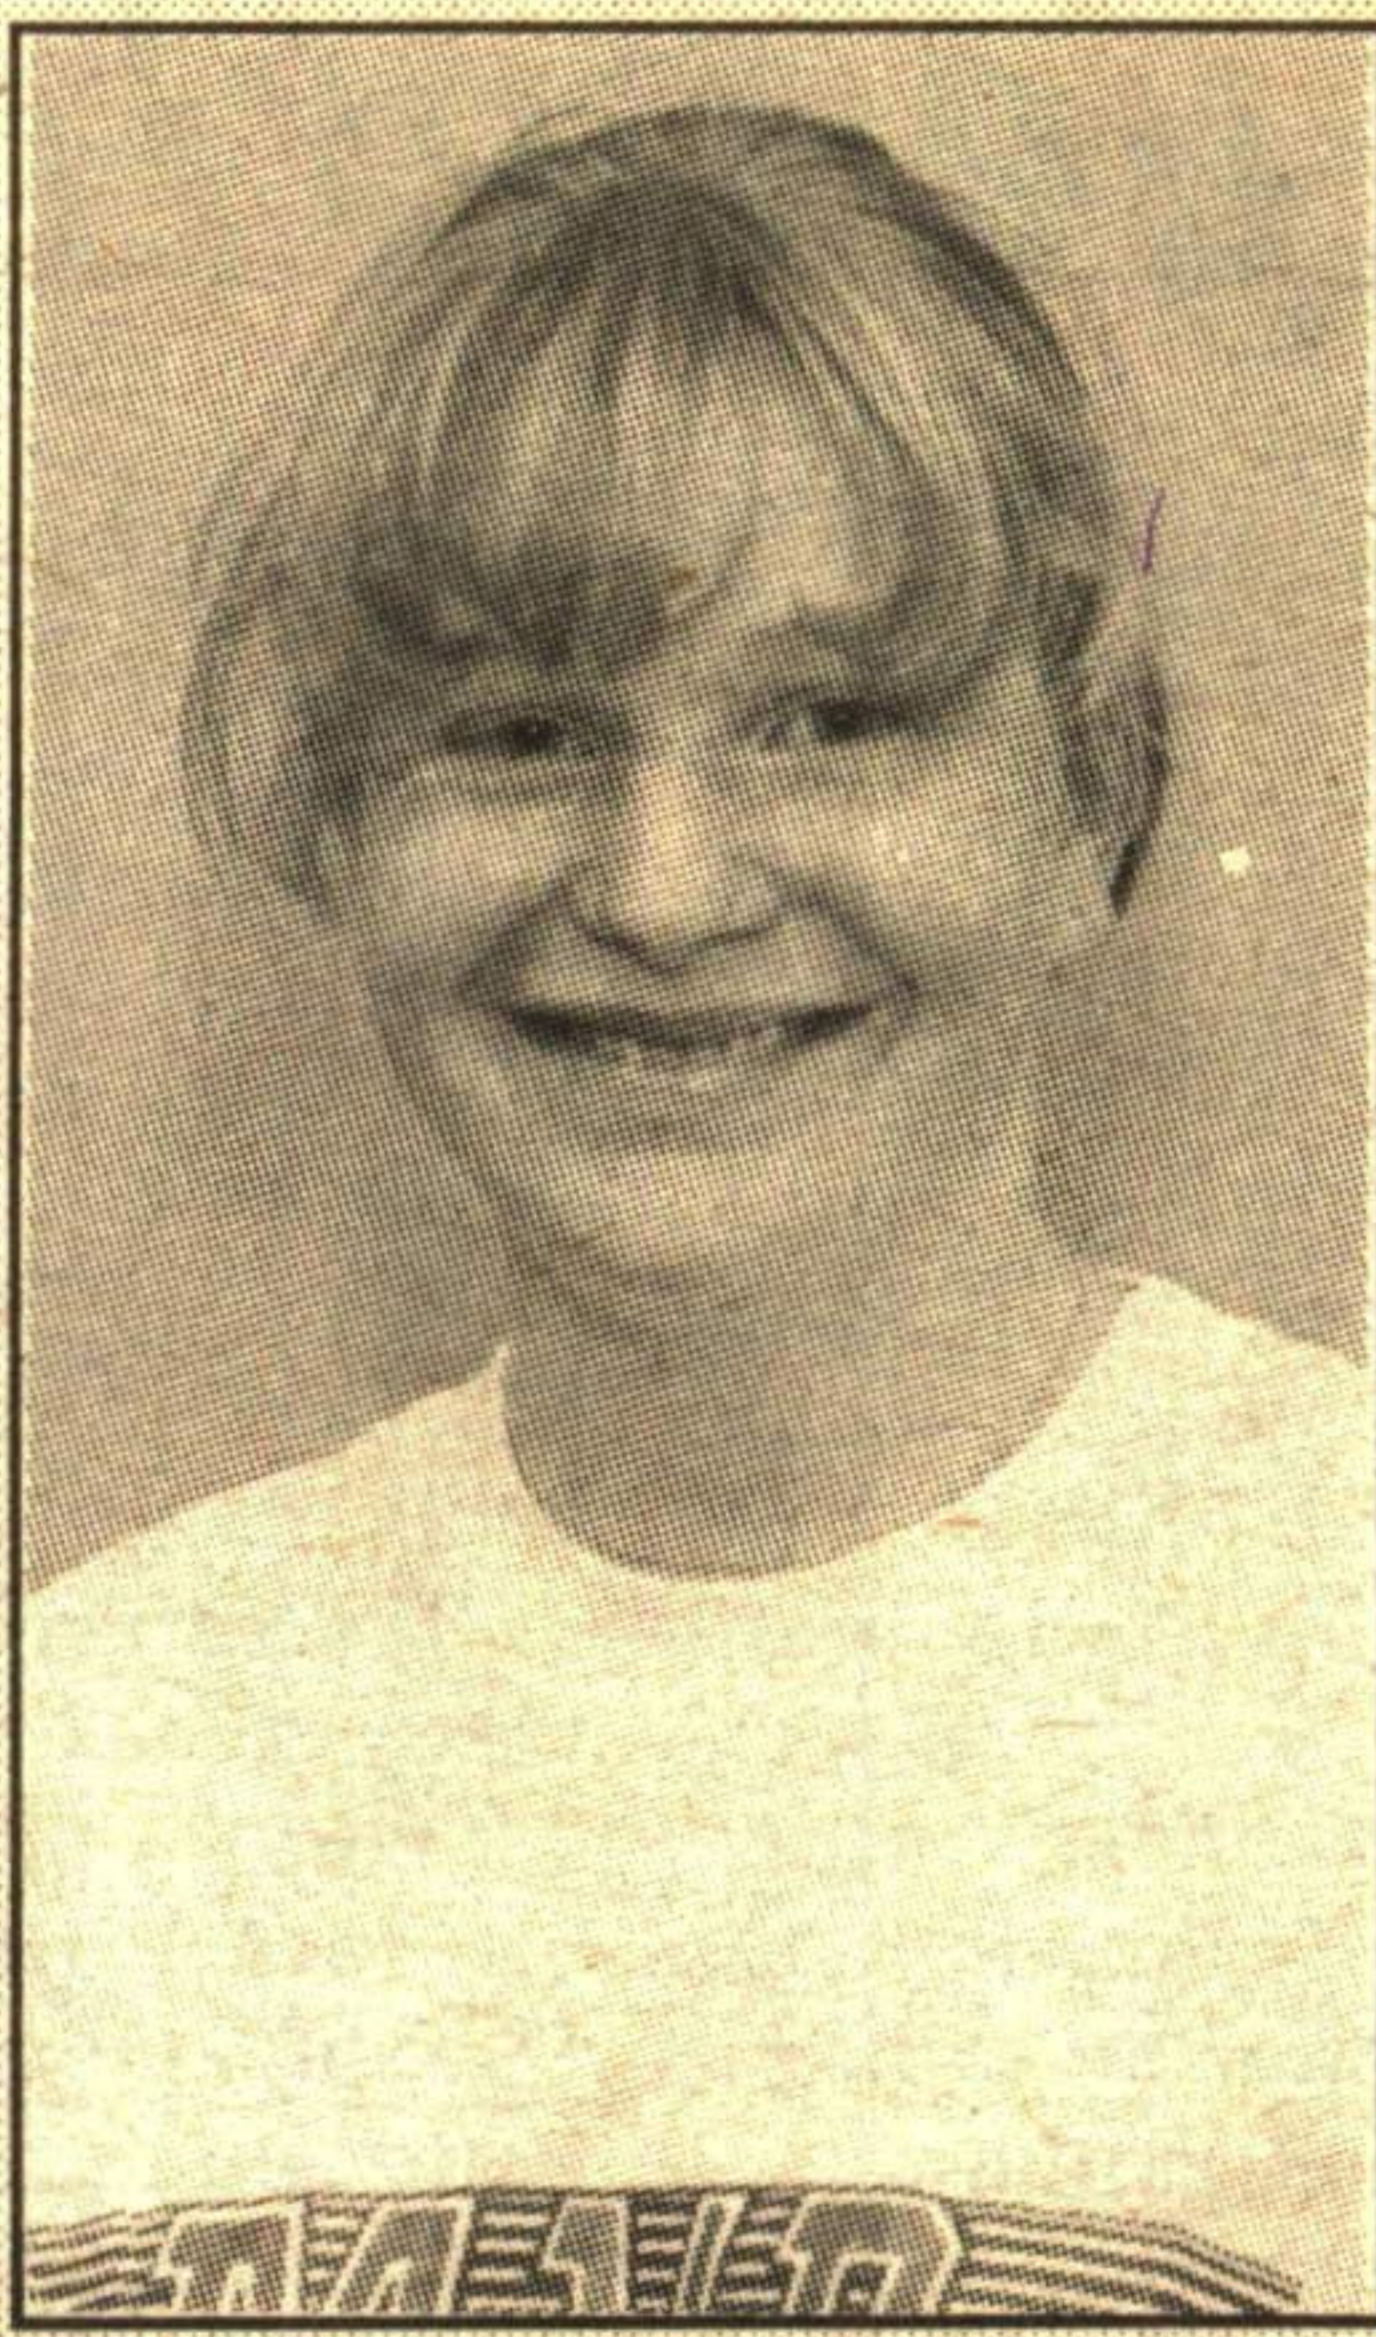

The Golden Rocket players relished their first victory and were happy for teammate Katie Morris, who scored all five goals. Strikers for the Blue Bombers were Kristel O'Reilly with a goal and Charlene Roche with two goals.

Dixie no match for local soccer squad

The Georgetown Girls Indoor Soccer team had re-match with Dixie on Feb. 15 at Soccer City scoring a 7-3 win.

Dixie Strikers moved quickly to a two goal lead over Georgetown in the first five minutes of play. For the third week in a row the Georgetown girls came from behind to finish the first half ahead of Dixie 4-2 with goals from Melissa Watts, Kate Blyth and Marci Roy with two goals.

Georgetown continued to dominate play in the second half by outscoring Dixie 3-1. Strikers for Georgetown in the second half were Taysha Brankiewicz with two goals and Kate Blyth with her second goal of the game.

GDHS Athletes of the week include a pair of skiers. Female Athlete Sachia Kron was chosen for her performance on the Downhill Ski Team at last week's GHAC meet where she finished second overall. William Fry, also placed second overall in the senior boys' cross country competition at GHAC.
