

Women's Institute preparing for QUILT Fest '92

By RUTH KRANENDONK
Halton District Women's Institute

Sharpen your quilting needles and get ready for the '92 Quilt Fest. This year, August 7-16, has been set aside for this very successful quilt show. It will be held again at the Ontario Agricultural Museum, Milton.

A quilting competition will be held and Women's Institute branches are encouraged to show off their skills and have fun competing. The article is to be a quilted square for a 35 inch card table. It must be pieced or appliqued and must be quilted. All entries must be submitted to the Museum by July 27. For further information, contact a Women's Institute Branch, or the Agricultural Museum at 878-8151.

One of the benefits of the Women's Institute is the opportunity to learn something new. Wardrobe Wizardry was a recent course offered in Halton and Wellington. Members and friends from branches around Halton were taught the art of silk scarf dyeing and making jewellery with 'Friendly Plastic'.

The next short course being offered will be Decor Accents which will be introduced in late 1992. Anyone is welcome to attend these workshops. It's a great way to meet new people and find out what the Women's Institute is all about.

Halton District Women's Institute Spring board meeting will be held Tuesday, March 31, 7 p.m. sharp at Doris Lindsay's home (6th Line, south of Highway 7). Please note this change in location. For further directions, call Doris at 877-2438.

The North Halton Literacy

Guild, one of the many organizations which the Women's Institute have supported, has extended an invitation to attend Best Of Friends. This light-hearted comedy will be presented at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, Georgetown in April. All proceeds from the April 2 performance will go to the North Halton Literacy Guild. Tickets are $10/person. For more information, call 873-2200.

The Ontario Agricultural Museum is looking for volunteers to help out at the newly named Mount Union Women's Institute Hall. The training day will be May 5. Contact Eve Martin at 853-1382 by April 5 if interested.

Wednesday, April 29 is A.C.W.W. (Associated Country Women of The World) Day, where Women's Institute members from around the world will hold special events to celebrate our worldwide affiliation.

Mark your calendar for Friday, May 29 to attend Friends In Concert at Roy Thomson Hall in Toronto.
