

Locals invited to compete

Seniors' Games to invade Halton Hills

The local Seniors' Games Committee met recently and discussed the latest arrangements for the games taking place in Halton Hills.

Ontario Seniors' Games is a time for seniors and their friends to gather and meet people from all over Ontario in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, starting in Halton Hills, moving on to the region, and then on to the province.

These games are for local residents. If you are at all interested and are over the age of 55, or if you already participate in any of the sports which are a part of the games. You must register to be included.

The emphasis is on fun, not ability. That means that if you do not win at the local level, you will still have participated in something as big as the province, and will enjoy going to watch your mates compete.

This year the provincial games will be held in Hamilton, August 24 to 26. The venues in Hamilton will be given at a later date.

The registration fee is $3 for each event, excluding golf.

To register show up at the venue on the day of the event, or phone the person in charge of the event, or, for more information you may contact Debbie Meithig, Halton Hills Recreation and Parks, 873-2600 ext. 267. Below is the information as it now stands.

TED BROWN/Halton Hills Weekend

Peddling for charity

Barbara Skok and Brian Terrell were in great peddling form as they biked during the entire recent Sadie Hawkins Dance, organized by Work That Body. Between Barbara and Brian, they managed to raise $760.50 for the Heart and Stoke Foundation for their two hours of constant peddling during which they covered 45 miles. The Sadie Hawkins dance was sponsored by a number of companies including Belamy's, C&S Printing, Dave Smallwood-DJ, Feyes Family Restaurant, Holy Cross Church, Jack Tanner's, Kentner's, McDonald's, Pizza Delight, Up up and Away, and Work That Body staff and friends. Total money raised by the dance for Heart and Stroke was $2,439.15.

Curlers urged to join bonspiel

Enter a team and compete against local celebrities and famous football players in Big Brothers' Appeal 'Spiel.

There is still room available but don't wait too long because space for teams is limited.

The event will take place on Sat., March 21 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Oakville Curling Club.

Interested curlers are asked to contact Irene at 847-7267 for pledge sheets and details.
