

Car totaled

A car was totaled and two people were taken to Georgetown and District Hospital Wednesday night after an accident involving a 15 year old driver. Four people were in the borrowed 1986 Pontiac, which was on the Third Line north of 22 Sideroad at 8:40 p.m. At a curve in the road, the car went off the road, rolled twice and hit a tree. The occupants of the car were 14 and 15 years old. The driver and one passenger were taken to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. The driver is in satisfactory condition and the passenger was treated and released.

Jacket stolen

A black leather jacket was taken from Centennial School Tuesday between 5 and 5:30 p.m., police said. The jacket belonged to one of the students.

Counterfeit money

Two Guelph St. businesses took in counterfeit American $20 bills Tuesday. An employee took in one of the bills at Subway Sandwiches and Salads during the day, and the manager noticed it later. The other bill was taken in at Pizza Delight along with a form which contained a name and address filled out by the person using the American money. Police discovered the address the man gave was false. The counterfeit American money has been popping up around the Toronto vicinity for a few months.

Business damaged

Alcatel Canada, a business on Sinclair Ave., had about $1,300 damage done to it overnight Tuesday. Damage was done to the front door and side window by someone firing a pellet gun, police said.

Chainsaw stolen

A chainsaw was stolen from a garage on Mill St. in Acton overnight April 22, police said. The chainsaw was valued at $500.

Woman assaulted

A man was arrested and charged with assault and intimidation Monday evening. A man and a woman got into an argument at their home. The man punched a hole in the door, and when the woman tried to call the landlord to tell him about the damage, the man cut the phone lines with a knife, police said. At the same time, he accidentally cut the woman.

Credit card

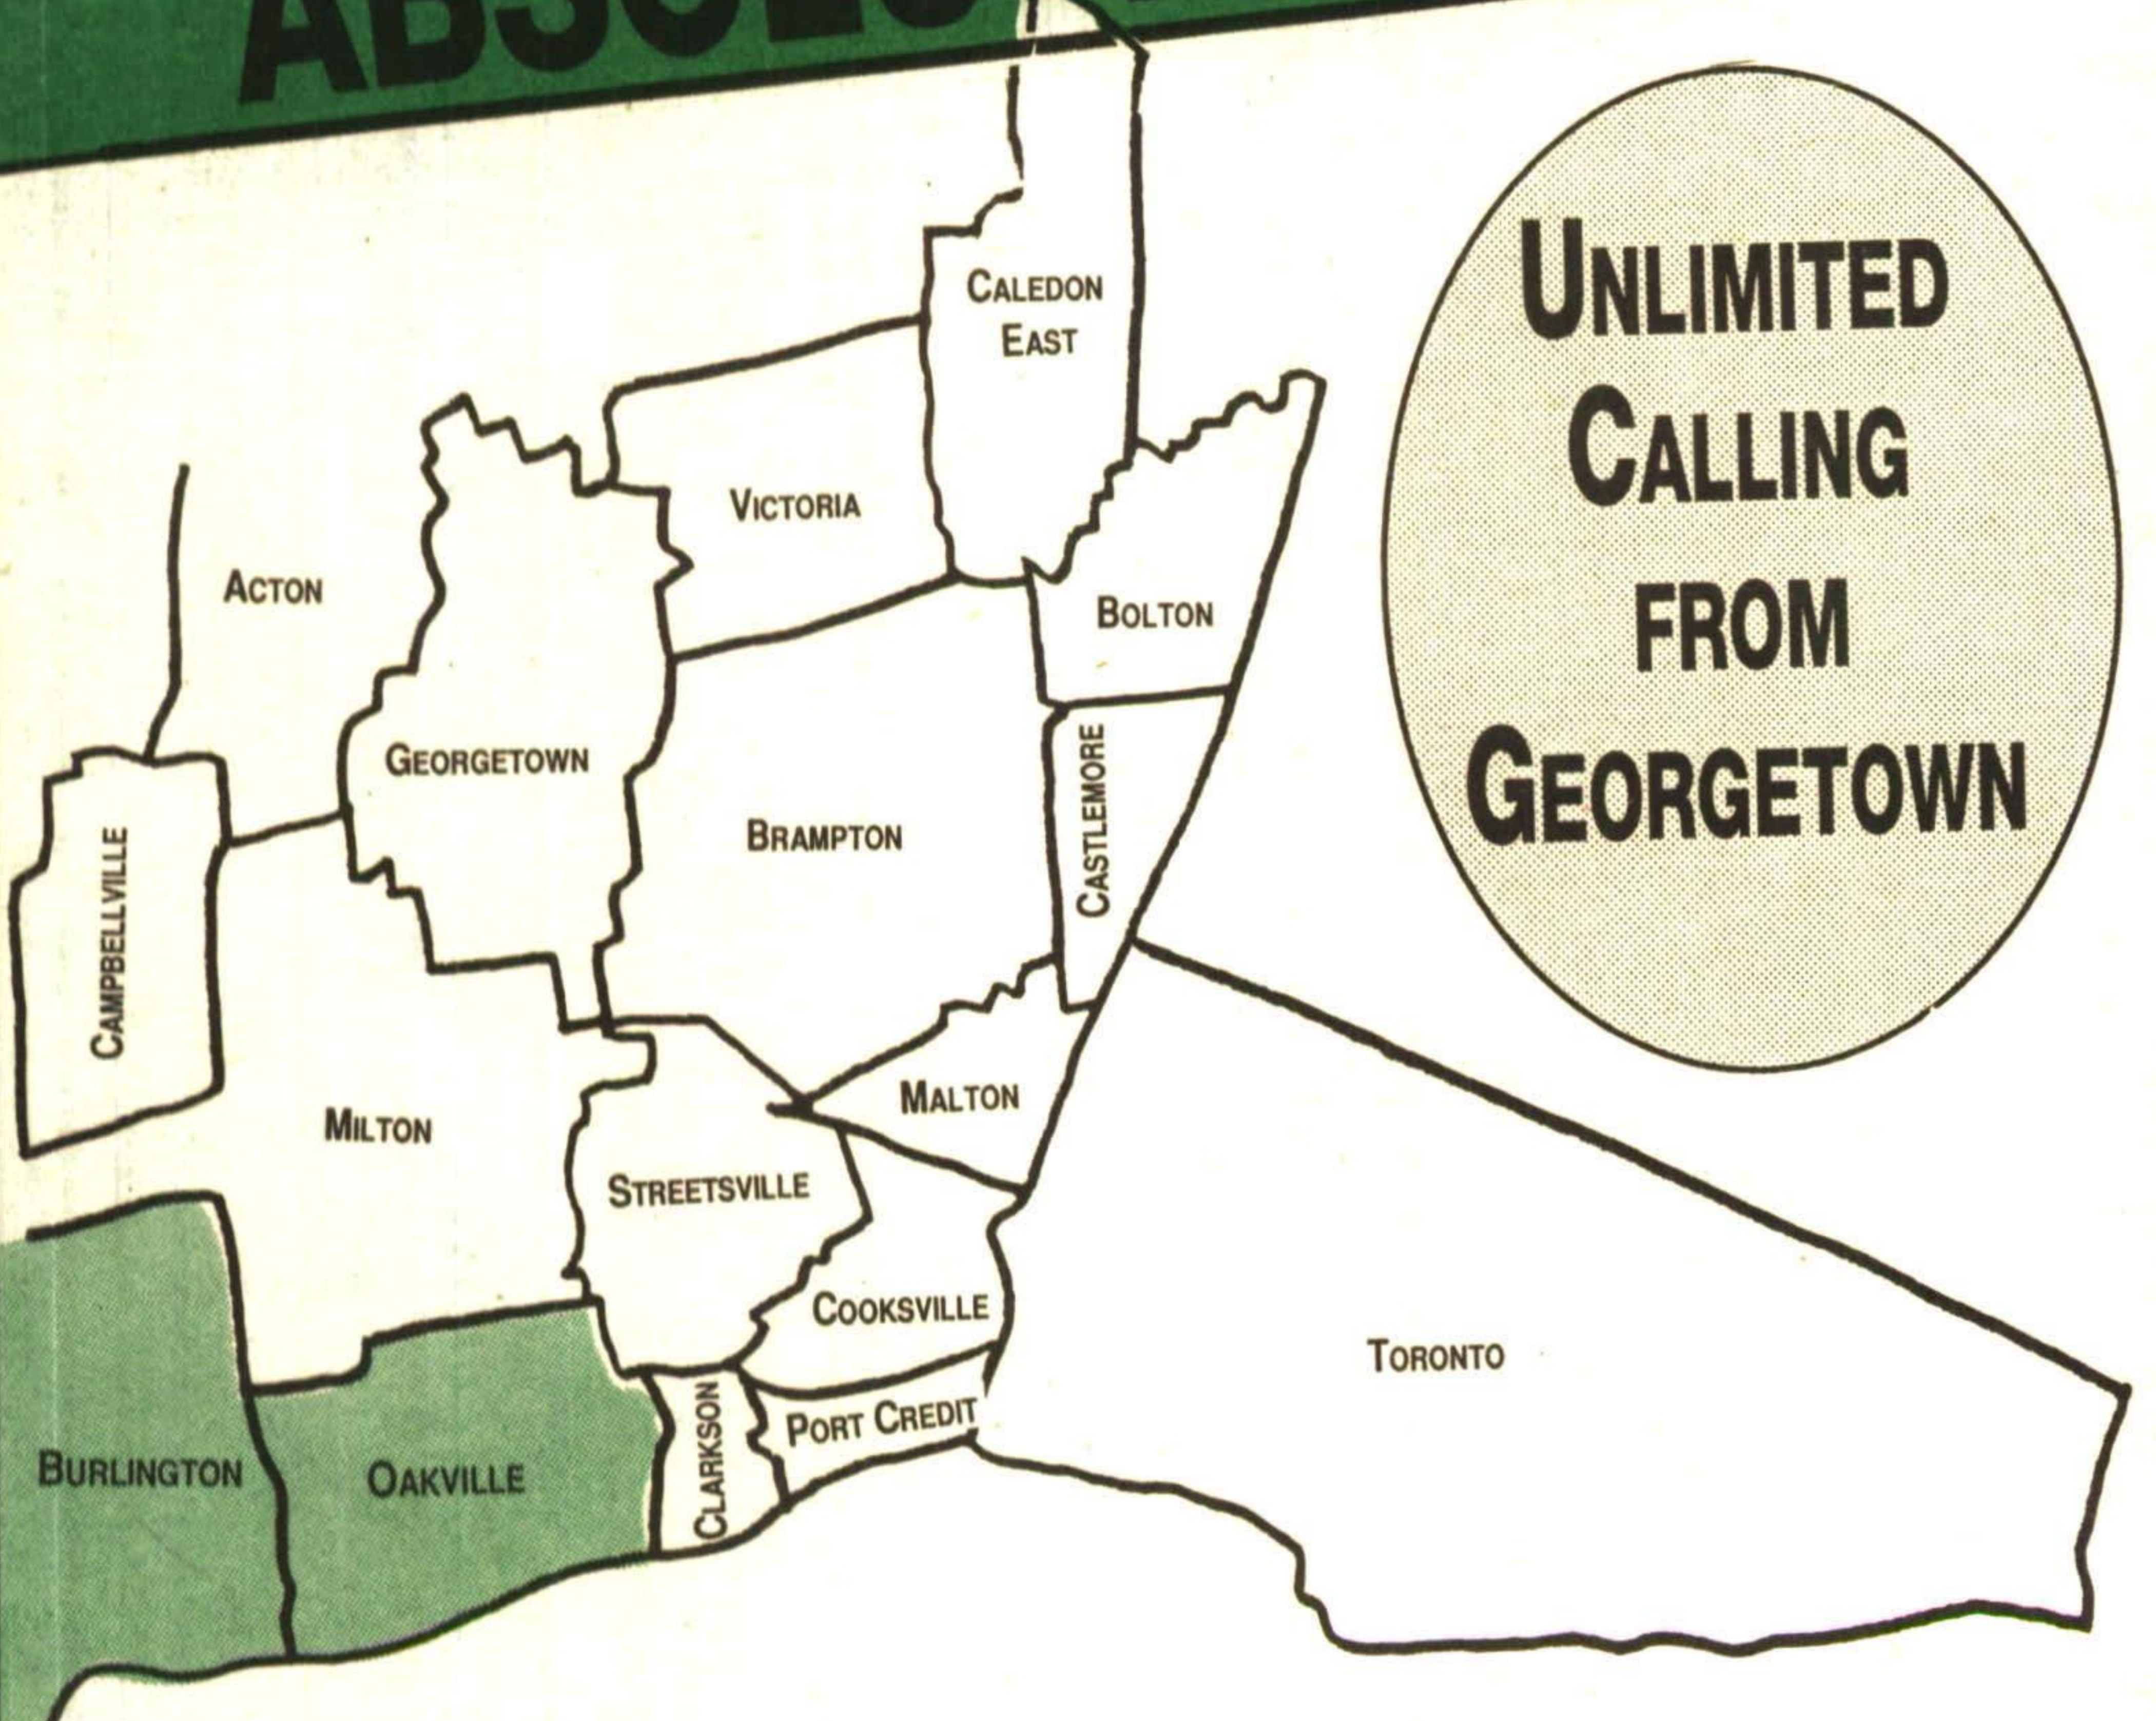

A Georgetown man who seldom uses his credit card received the bill Wednesday and discovered someone had run up a bill of $3,630 on his account. Numerous purchases, including a $1,400 stereo and several visits to gas stations were made on April 8, 9, and 10 in Mississauga. The man was not aware he had lost his credit card until the bill came in, and then he discovered he did not have it.
