

Rev. Nancy Knox to leave St. John's

Reverend Nancy Knox will be leaving her St. John's United Church, Georgetown congregation this June after six years of guiding its members.

Rev. Knox and her retired husband, Carl Schenk, have decided to travel extensively for seven months. They will leave June 21, following Rev. Knox's final Sunday with her congregation June 14.

Their journey will take them to western Canada, the Yukon, Alaska, down the western coast of the United States to California and then on to Hawaii. From Hawaii they will head for Australia, New Zealand, the Cook Islands and then back to California. From California they will drive home through the southern United States.

Rev. Knox acknowledging that she will look for another ministerial appointment when she returns.

Rev. Knox has a degree in sociology and a Masters of Divinity from the Toronto School of Theology. She was ordained in 1980 and has been in ministry for 12 years.

Why have Rev. Knox and her husband decided to travel at this point in time?

"Why not?" said Rev. Knox. "Carl's retired. One day last fall I thought, 'Why not now, what are we waiting for?'"

REV. NANCY KNOX

This will be Rev. Knox's first time travelling. "It'll all be new," she said.

Rev. Knox believes her congregation is happy for her but sad to see her go.

"It's been very positive," said Rev. Knox. "There's been lots of change and growth over six years. St. John's is a wonderful congregation. It's full of talented and committed people. It has been a real pleasure to work with them."

Currently a committee is looking for two new ministers to replace Rev. Knox. One will be full time and the second will be 3/4 time. "They're searching for those persons now," affirmed Rev. Knox.

Rev. Knox feels it's an appropriate time to welcome new ministers to St. John's, now that their year-long renovations are almost complete.

The church built a new administrative area around the back of the original church exterior. The renovations are complete with a new kitchen, elevator and bathrooms, making the church more accessible.

"I've enjoyed over the years working with the different churches in the community through the Georgetown ministerial," added Rev. Knox.

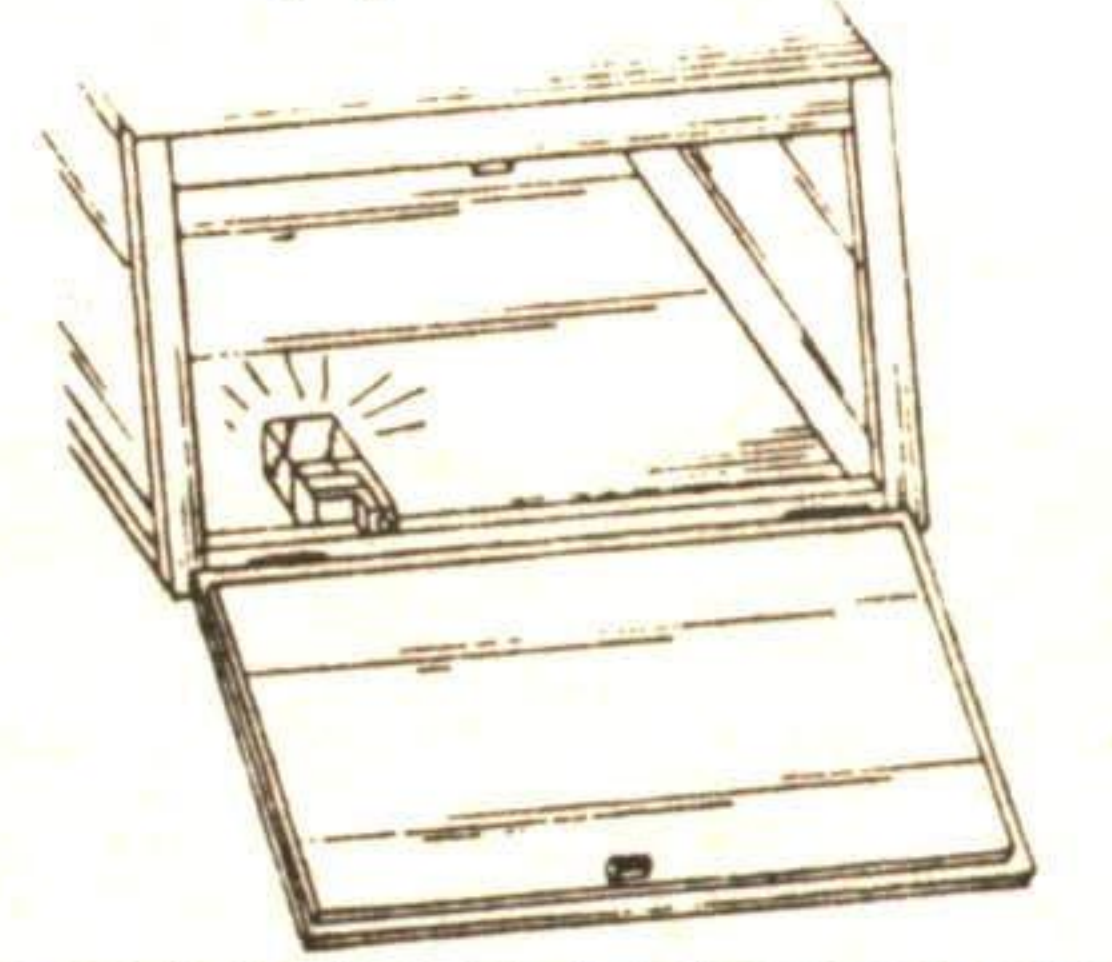

"One of the highlights has been the development of the chaplaincy program at the hospital, which I've been involved in."

The program involves a local minister being on call to the hospital each day. Rev. Knox said that previously there was no such care available.
