

Large crowd at annual barbecue

Norval United Church's Chicken Barbecue came off in fine style last Saturday, thanks to Chairman David Dunlop and his wife Sherry.

The Huttonville School auditorium lent itself to the overflowing crowd of 800 people, that were able to be indoors out of the rain showers.

Everyone enjoyed Iva Davidson's dinner music, assisted by Willis Jones and Lorne Cunningham on the guitars.

Succulent barbecue chicken, along with baked potato and salads, and the pies of every variety left people with a great feeling as they enjoyed meeting friends and neighbors you don't see very often, due to the pace we all keep in these fast moving times.

From Rosetown, Saskatchewan, came Harley Waite for the barbecue, who has been visiting nieces and nephews, in the area. Gordon and Doris Sharpe, RR2 Norval, and Lloyd and Grace Hustler, formerly of Norval, and now of Brampton.

Harley is a retired farmer, and rents out his section of land but has a lot of concern for many farmers in the area, who are in financial difficulty and no relief in sight. A lot of heartache for the farmer, who tills the soil, milks the cows or tends the beef cattle!

Then along comes Bryan Lewis and his wife Elaine. Brian is Referee in Chief of the NHL, and when picked up at the airport by Elaine, decided to drop in at Norval's barbecue. Chairman David would like to say a big "Thanks" to all church members and others who helped in any way to make the church barbecue a success.

(Steamer) Emerson, of Georgetown who is now getting back to routine everyday activities.

Steamer had a heart problem a couple of months ago, confining him to hospital and intensive care for a couple of weeks, so is now pacing himself at a slower rate.

He is in the General Arts course at Laurier University in Waterloo, taking an English course, and hopefully his B.A.; a big challenge, but something he always wanted to do.

Many people know Steamer for emceeing the various socials and events in town and the short stories he used to write.

Visiting

Abbie Brander of Cheltenham visited for the weekend with her grandparents, Bill and Mae Brander, RR2 Norval.

Euchre

Pinegrove euchre had four tables on May 11. Winners were Doris McNabb, Ruth Thompson, Bruce Nixon, John McNabb. Lucky draw Eileen Nixon and Nick Kostick.
