We wish all of the Branch and Auxiliary members attending the Memorial Day parade in Plymouth Mass. as guests of Post 40, American Legion, good weather and a most successful parade. We look forward to your safe return, and word of old friends.

Sick chairman's report:
It was my pleasure to visit with the following sick members this week: Fred (Tut) Harrison had some trouble getting room, at bedside lots of other visitors, seems to be coming on nicely. Vic Tomkinson expects to be home shortly. Ray McDonald, in with Tut, now home. Bob Williams, much better, expects to be out shortly. Dorothy Vinkle, hope to see you out and around soon. We wish them all speedy recovery.

Talked also with Bill Gibbs, Carolyn Hawkins, and Neil Gummerson at the Bennett Centre, always like to look in on them, and bring greetings from the membership.
