

Dream vacation

Acton's '197 Typhoon' Air Cadet Squadron had a great four day trip to Ft. Knox, Kentucky, recently. Above, the U.S. Marines Harrier Jump Jet was of great interest. The Marines who were at Ft. Knox for a practice Close Air Support mission were pleased to give the eager cadets a walk-around tour of this airplane as well as a look inside the cockpit. Right, Warrant Officer 1, Mike Reich and Warrant 2, Charron Ellis are two of only a few non-military personnel to play the ultimate video game. They, cadets and staff visited the U.S. Army's SIMNET facility. SIMNET is a network of 54 Abrahms M1A1 tank simulators which are hooked up together to train tank crews. Each simulator is manned by a crew of four and is capable of working with other simulators against a computer generated enemy or another team of tanks in other simulators.
