BARB STEPHENS/Halton Hills Weekend

10th anniversary

Centennial Alumni Choir recently held a 10th anniversary concert at John Elliott Theatre. The second half of the program included many ex-members who returned for the special evening. Since the choir's beginning in 1982, it has performed at a variety of musical events including the Georgetown Fall Fair, Hamilton's Christmas Fantasy and at senior citizen's homes and Christmas functions. Here, director Paul Brisley conducts the band during the performance. All members are graduates of Centennial Middle School.

Agricultural Museum has special prices for seniors during June

June is seniors' month and the Ontario Agricultural Museum continues its annual "Seniors' Days" which will include 12 exciting days of activities for the young at heart. From June 1 to 12 inclusive, those 65 years and over will be treated to an old-fashioned admission fee of just 65 cents.

In addition to the museum's regularly scheduled activities, Seniors' Days 1992 will feature special tours of the 32-hectare site on tractor-drawn wagons, a quilt display, dancing demonstrations, musical entertainment, refreshments and much more.

From June 1 to 12 inclusive, those 65 years and over will be treated to an old-fashioned admission fee of just 65 cents.

The museum is a great place for seniors to visit Ontario's agricultural past and spend a relaxing day in the country. Experience the evolution of rural Ontario through costumed interpreters, farm animals, displays and unique rural buildings.

The Ontario Agricultural Museum is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., until September 20. Admission is $3.50 for adults, $1.75 for youths (6-17), $1.75 for seniors (except during Seniors' Days) and $8.50 for families.

Located five km west of Milton, the museum can be reached from Highway 401 via exit 320 or 312 north.
