

BARB STEPHENS/Halton Hills Weekend

Square dancers from across Ontario turned out to a special dance at Acton Legion to celebrate Canada's 125th anniversary and raise money for the Matthew Fleet fund.

Square dance proceeds go to Wheels for Matthew Square dancers from all over Ontario and two couples from Florida squared up to make last Friday night's square dance a swingin' success.

Organized by the Acton Star Thru Squares, the dance was held at Acton High School to celebrate Canada's 125th Birthday and raise money for Wheels for Matthew.

Don Dedman of "Circle B" Brampton won the $100 gift certificate donated by the Acton I.G.A. Lori Foster won the portable C.D.

player donated by Curwood Packaging.

A donation of $951 from the evening's proceeds was presented to Dave Boycott, chairman of the Wheels for Matthew committee, and Matthew Fleet.

Dancers came from Honeywood, Scarborough, Toronto, Etobicoke, St. Catharines, Guelph, Georgetown, Peterborough, Brampton, Alliston, Waterdown, Milton, Milverton, Acton, and Florida.

Scotsdale bash a birthday celebration

Circle Wednesday, July 1 on your calendar now. That's the day you'll want to be at Scotsdale Farm to celebrate not one, but three birthdays; Canada's 125th, the Bruce Trail's 25th, and the 10th anniversary of the gift of Scotsdale to the people of Ontario by the Bennett family.

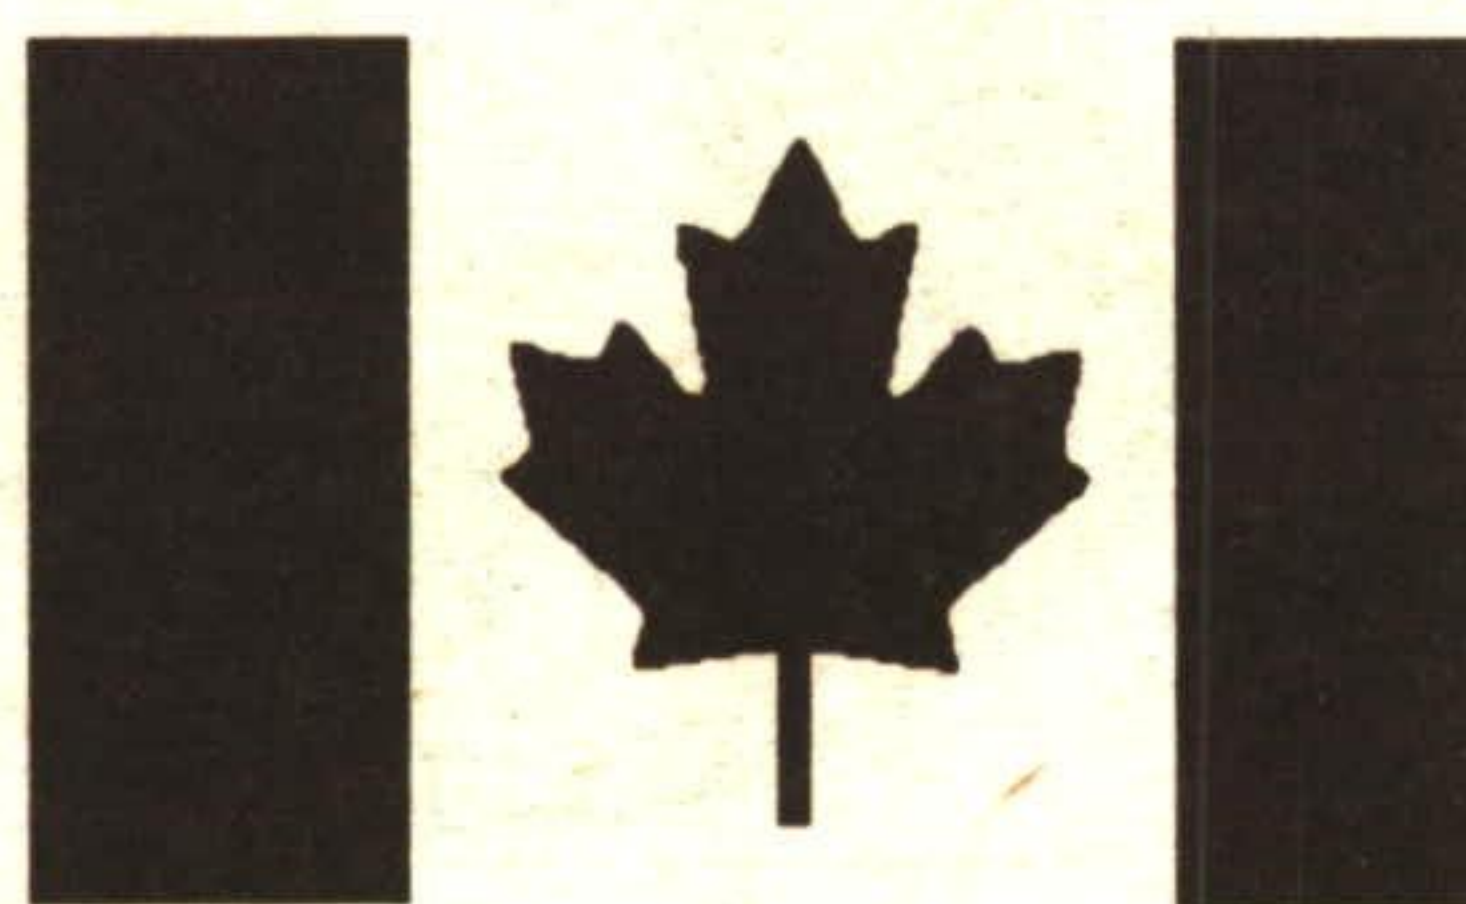

There will be hikes of various lengths (including a nature hike), for both prizes are only one dollar each.

The print is on view at The Frame Maker, 232 Guelph Street in Georgetown, where it was framed. Draw tickets are available at this location.

For more information on this event call Chris Walker at 877-8913. For information on the print, or tickets for the draw, call Frances Walker at 877-9162.

burgers, hot dogs, pop and Upper Canada beer. The charge for the food and drink will be nominal, since this is a party! In the interests of reducing waste, the first glass of beer sold will include an extra charge (about $1.50) for a reusable plastic glass.

At 2 p.m. there will be a few (short!) speeches, and then a draw for two prizes. The first prize is a handsome framed print of a deer by Canadian wildlife artist Gordon Pynn. The second prize is a book by the Keoughs on the Niagara Escarpment. Tickets for the draw

Hospital hosting Neighborhood Party
